

Henry Rhoades of Lynn, Mass.

First Generation

1. Henry RHODES, son of Walter RHODES and Elizabeth Joanna BARSTOW, was born in 1608 in , Lancashire, England and died in 1703 in Lynn, Essex, MA.

Note: I currently list here only the basic line bringing the Rhoades Family to Maine, especially Winslow. Most early settlers were buried in the Old Western Burial Grounds, at the foot of Lynn Common. I have not seen proof connecting Henry to Walter.

NEHGS has a bound copy of a manuscript about 5" thick, Genealogy of Henry Rhodes of Lynn MA, by Nelson Osgood Rhoades 1869-1928, CS71.R475 1922a I have recorded everything it has for descendants of Solomon 1750.

Family Tree DNA indicates the Rhodes Y-line is R-M269.

In July and September of 1984, I published in The Maine Genealogist [then The Maine Seine] a genealogy in progress of the Winslow Maine branch of the Rhoades family. I mentioned in that article that I was stuck on Rufus Rhoads, born 1787 NH according to the census, who married Abigail Reynolds in Winslow 21 March 1811. I was unable to find Rufus in any NH or MA records. For 14 years, I had nothing new to report, but finally in 1998 stumbled upon the identity of a number of Rhoades families who moved to Maine. Here are some notes that made me look for other names in my search beyond Rufus Rhoades. June 1809: Reuben Rhoads of Vassalboro bought land from John Myrick - 100 acres at 15 Mile Stream (now Carrabassett Stream in Clinton). July 27, 1811: Reuben Rhoades, yeoman, of an unincorporated place, 25 Mile Pond (now Burnham), sold to Rufus Rhoades of Winslow land in Bridges Town (now Troy), lot 6 of 7th range, 100 acres, for $300. It is land that Reuben now lives on. [This may have been a mortgage.] I'm not sure what land(s) this is, but it created a tie between Reuben and Rufus. Researching Reuben in the census and VR, I discovered that he was only a little older than Rufus and born in MA. I thought possibly a brother. I likewise believed further clues may be other Rhoades who passed through Winslow, such as Levi Rhoades and Chester Rhoades, both of whom are briefly mentioned in Winslow VR, and then moved to Gardiner. I'd still like to identify Michael Rhoades of nearby Chelsea, Hallowell, and Augusta. The other four are indeed brothers, in the sixth generation of the Henry Rhodes of Lynn, MA branch. [There are also two other unrelated branches of Rhodes in Maine - the Kittery/Eliot branch and the Germans of the Waldoboro area.] I would like to thank Marcia Wiswall Lindberg of the Essex (County MA) Society of Genealogists, who provided the vital clues I needed in her four part series of descendants of Henry Rhodes of Lynn, Essex, MA (born 1608) in The Essex Genealogist in 1994 and 1995. She said she had no more information on Solomon than what she published. It was five years later (looking for Rhoades's to help someone else! It pays to answer queries!) that I re-read her article and noticed at the very end in the May 1995 issue, she lists the children of Samuel Rhodes<sup>4</sup> (Eleazer,<sup>3</sup> Josiah,<sup>2</sup> Henry<sup>1</sup>) and has a subparagraph on the children of Samuel's son Solomon<sup>5</sup>. I quote that paragraph from page 92: Notice especially the sketchy info on children 1, 4, 8, and 11. viii. SOLOMON RHOADS, b. at Dedham, d. at Hillsborough, Hillsborough, NH 1806; m at Dedham, MA, Oct 1781, ELEANOR RHOADES-5, b. in 1761 [Stephen<sup>4</sup>, Eleazer<sup>3</sup>, Josiah<sup>2</sup>, Henry<sup>1</sup>]. Solomon was a Revolutionary War soldier; went to Rhode Island in 1778. Children: 1. Reuben. 2. Solomon, b New Marlborough, 30 Nov 1783; died Antrim, Hillsborough, NH 1850; m 1807 Mary (Polly) Fairbanks. 3. Eleanor. 4. Rufus. 5. James, b at Pelham MA 31 May 1789; d there Oct 1795. 6. Silas, b at Pelham 8 Mar 1791; d Jan 1880; m1) 26 Nov 1815 Rebecca Hayward; m2) Laura C Ballou. 7. Amos, b at Pelham 16 Sept 1792; d there 15 Apr 1794. 8. Levi, b there 6 Sept 1794. 9. Nancy, b there 15 Feb 1796. 10. Patty, b there 25 Oct 1797. 11. Chesterfield [Chaster in Pelham VR], b there 10 July 1799. 12. Betsey, b there 11 April 1801; d there 16 July 1801. 13. Abigail, b there 3 May 1802; d 27 Feb 1803. 14. Lucinda. 15. Harriet; m at Cambridge, Middlesex, MA [not found in VR]. We have here much circumstantial evidence, but I found more. We have these 4 settlers of the Winslow area all mentioned in this family. Their various name spellings evolved into Rhoades. Census says Rufus of Winslow was b 1787, which fits in perfectly at two years before child #5. Chesterfield's [Chester] birth date here from Pelham MA VR is matched exactly in the VR of West Gardiner, ME. Levi Rhoades died 11 Nov 1872 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME at age 78, which would make him born in 1794. Reuben is 77 in the 1860 Troy, Waldo, ME census, placing his birth date at 1782, which fits right in. Rufus Rhoads married Abigail Reynolds. Researching the Reynolds line, I had come across what is now another piece of evidence, but which I never before recognized as a clue to my Rhoades line. Abigail's brother Leavitt Reynolds was born 4 April 1796 in Hillsborough, NH. The Reynolds family moved to Vassalboro and Winslow. So, both families made a brief stay in Hillsborough, NH between their MA and Maine residences. I have sorted through some vital records to sort out some of their descendants and would appreciate hearing from anyone with more information. [If the town is listed after the date, my source is the printed Vital Records to 1892, or VR on microfilm after 1892.] Other ref: Solomon was a soldier in the Rev War. His widow Eleanor applied for a bounty land pension in 1856 at the age of 95. It has names and letters from many other Rhoades cousins. It is available on Heritage Quest. Not sure of whether land was granted.

Dedham Marriages says in both the int and marr, both of Dedham; Solomon is Rhodes in int, and they are both Rhoads in marr-rec, md by Rev Mr Chickering.

Correspondent and cousin Kerry Jackson Sept 2010, says Solomon died in 1806 after being thrown by his horse and hitting his head on a rock.

If you have his brother's pension requests (Samuel and David's) also, you'll read that his younger brother James T. Rhoades testified that Solomon was the oldest of ten children of Samuel Rhoades and Abigail Thorpe of Dedham.

Children from this marriage were:

- 10 M i. Reuben RHOADES was born in Jun 1782 in , MA and died 2 Dec 1864 in Troy, Waldo, ME.
- M ii. Solomon RHOADES was born 30 Nov 1783 in New Marlborough, Berkshire, MA and died before 1850 in Antrim, Hillsborough, NH.
Solomon had no children. "History of Antrim, NH 1744-1877" by Rev W R Cochrane 1880.
1850 Antrim census shows Mary Rhoades 63 b MA and a Martha Fairbanks age 84 b MA [likely her mother].

mary did adopt Maria Coburn b 1808 Antrim, dau of her sister Abigail. Framingham 1787 b-rec as Polly, dau Zacheus & Polly. - Fairbanks Family in America.

Solomon married Mary "Polly" FAIRBANKS, daughter of Zacheus FAIRBANKS and Martha GATES, 22 Oct 1807 in Antrim, Hillsborough, NH. Mary was born 23 Apr 1787 in Framingham, Middlesex, MA and died 23 Aug 1867 in Antrim, Hillsborough, NH.

- F iii. Eleanor RHOADES was born in 1785 in , , MA.

  - F xiv. Lucinda RHOADES.
  - F xv. Harriet RHOADES.
This Harriet who "married unk and moved to Cambridge, Middlesex, MA" may really be Harriet, daughter of Solomon's son Silas, who married Hezekiah Gale and res Cambridge, Middlesex, MA. Only source I've seen is History of Antrim, NH.

Wrentham Deaths says Lt Rhoads, 73rd year. GR5 Sheldonville Cem. Rowena in her 87th year. Rev War.

Timothy married Rowena TOLMAN 10 Jul 1781 in Wrentham, Norfolk, MA. Rowena was born in 1759 and died 7 Dec 1845 in Wrentham, Norfolk, MA.

Children from this marriage were:

- 15 M i. Sanford RHODES was born 11 Nov 1781 in Wrentham, Norfolk, MA and died 23 Aug 1818 in Wrentham, Norfolk, MA.
- M ii. Timothy RHODES Jr was born 7 Oct 1785 in Wrentham, Norfolk, MA and died 9 Mar 1871 in Wrentham, Norfolk, MA.

Sixth Generation (3rd Great-Grandchildren)

1860 Troy Census has Reuben age 77 & Hannah age 73 living with son Albion and family-says (Albion) is 40yrs. so prob. is (Alvin) as listed in Troy VR as being born in 1820. Census says Reuben born in Mass, and Hannah in NH. See "Troy Maine Past & Present 1793, 1827-1977" by Mitchell. Troy was originally called 25-mile Pond Plantation in 1795, then Bridgetown, inc as Kingville 1812, became Joy 1814, Montgomery in 1825, and Troy in 1827. Troy's peak population was 1484 in 1850. Troy VR - 1880 Mortality census says Hannah was NH-3, resident 64 years (1815), in Alvin's household, "cancerous humor". 1790 Londonderry NH census has a John Steele, 3-3-4 = 3 males over 16, 3M under 16, 4 females. Marriage date is from published Londonderry VR book.

Reuben married Hannah STEELE in Feb 1807 in Londonderry, Rockingham, NH. Hannah was born in Aug 1786 in Londonderry, Rockingham, NH and died 3 Dec 1879 in Troy, Waldo, ME.

Winslow VR book and the actual records on microfilm, v1 p251-252 has the marriage of Rufus & Abigail, married by Rev Joshua Cushman.

1850 Winslow census 166/176: Snell Rhoads 27 farmer $300, Harriet 24; 167/177: Rufus Rhoads 62 b ME, Abigail age 60 MA.

1860 Winslow census 132/136: Snell Rhoades 38 farmer $1000/190, Harriet 34, Bradley Withee 24, Eliza Withee 23, Amos Withee 21. 133/137: Rufus Rhoades age 72 b NH Farmhand pers estate $75, Abigail 69 b Maine. 1870 Winslow: Rufus Rhoades age 84 b NH. Death record age abt 87.

Rufus served in The War of 1812 with the Winslow Army unit. Pvt, Capt J L Childs Co, Lt Col H Moore's Regt; raised at Winslow, service at Wiscasset Sept 12-27, 1814. Adna Reynolds also served with this same unit. His occupation was a farmer, which he pursued until he was 84 years old. At that time he was living with son Snell Rhoades and his wife Harriet. We are not sure where he and Abigail are buried, but there are two "empty" lots right next to his son John and his wife Nancy in Fort Hill Cemetery, Winslow. Probing indicates two coffins there. Since John died before his father, perhaps the money saved for Rufus and Abigail's stone went for his son's stone instead, and no one else had the means or interest in providing stones for this first generation in Maine. A new stone has been placed there for them 2011.

"The Eastern Mail" paper of Waterville Maine ran an article "Talk About Winslow" in its April 22, 1864 issue about the early settlers of Winslow (when Rufus Rhoades was still alive). I found a transcript at the Taconnett Genealogy Library in Winslow. Selected quotes include from Page 44: "These farms are stony and harder to till than any other except that owned by Col. Britton. .... Rufus Rhoades formerly owned the farm now owned by Col. Britton. ... R. Rhoades [came] from Pelham, NH". We know that the Rhoades family came from Pelham Mass to NH when Rufus was a child [History of Antrim, Hillsborough, NH]. Rufus told census enumerators that he was born in NH. Perhaps he really was born in Pelham Mass and only remembered NH from his childhood and confused the right town with the wrong state when he talked with this reporter. Hillsborough and Antrim NH (see Solomon's story) border each other; Pelham NH is a long ways away on the Mass border, and no where near Pelham MA. My guess is that Rufus was born in Pelham MA like the children born before and after him, and that they later moved to NH.

Rufus married Abigail Thayer REYNOLDS, daughter of Thomas REYNOLDS and Tabitha THAYER, 21 Mar 1811 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME. Abigail was born 2 Jun 1790 in Bridgewater, Plymouth, MA and died 1 Jun 1869 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME.

Abigail Reynolds is a double descendant of Mayflower Pilgrim Edward Doty. This Mayflower connection is documented in the Mayflower Society's Edward Doty silver books through both Edward Doty's son John and daughter Mary. The connections are Edward Doty1, John2, Elizabeth3, Elizabeth Morse4, and Betty Turner5; and also Edward1, Mary2, Hannah Hatch3, Japhet Turner4, and then Betty5 again; Thomas Reynolds6, and Abigail Reynolds7. Also descended from Stephen Hopkins and Francis Cooke. Contact Roland Rhoades for my Mayflower application worksheets if you'd also like to be a documented Mayflower descendant. Abigail's middle name is based on second hand oral history.

At the NERGC 2009 conference, I looked at and immediately bought the new book VR of Stoughton MA to 1850 by David Allen Lambert 2008. John and Nancy's marriage date had been missing after nearly 30 years of searching. For some reason, they had come back to MA to marry, even though both were born and lived in central Maine. The index shows other Rhoades and Reynolds cousins in town there, and also fills in some blanks for previous generations. They were married by Isaac Smith, Pastor of the Baptist Society in East Stoughton, "both parties from Stoughton".

John B Rhoades died April 29, 1869, leaving a personal estate worth $1000 and real estate worth $2000. His land is described as about 100 acres bounded on the west by the Seabasticook River, south by land of John B Stratton, north by Chales C Stratton and Charles E Warren, and east by L. Bangs. Left 7 minor children in 1869: George, Clara, Frank, Anna, John, Fred, and Roland. John's father Rufus age over 80. John B Stratton, administrator. Estate included 8 casks containing 100 gallons of wine. Bills from Dr Bantelle and Dr Crosby. Silas H Rhoades bought some land for $725. John also had land in Winslow known as the bog lot, 35 acres worth $75. Nancy Rhoades was appointed guardian to Clara E, Frank C, Anna L, John F, Fred L, and Roland E, Feb 28, 1870. John, Fred, and Roland each owned 1/7 of the homestead farm. Nancy sold this 3/7 in 1881 to pay expenses of guardianship. The Winslow VR book is unclear on the death date of John, but the microfilm of the original records, v2 p237 clearly says April 29, 1869. His mother is on the same page as June 1, 1869. Those dates "are also recorded on page 307 of the New Book", but that does not seem to be on the microfilm. I purchased a new stone for him in 2011, since his old marble stone is nearly illegible from acid rain and being broken by vandals.

In the East Somerset Co. Register 1912 Annie (Bickford, Roland's first wife) Rhoades m. ___ Jacobs child : Irma M. Also, John F. Rhoades, carpenter, wife Mabel E. (Tracy), dau. Evelyn E. No other Rhoades listed in Pittsfield.

Occupation: Advent Preacher, 1880 Litchfield census. Levi and Sarah are buried in Litchfield Plains Cem. Sarah's d/c not found on Ancestry.

George Rogers, Historical Society of Litchfield, says 2010 "Thomas Morgridge lived on the Upper Pond Road where I live and where Elder Levi Rhodes lived. Thomas' house currently belongs to Ed Avis, a member of HSOL, and he has done a good job of restoring it. When I was a boy (I'm now seventy-five), the house was a wreck. After years of looking, Ed found the Morgridge cemetery down near the pond. (He had to probe, all the stones were flat and buried and some were broken.) We wondered for years in which church Thomas served as deacon. We eventually found that the Litchfield selectmen divided Litchfield into three religious districts in the early 1800's. Thomas Morgridge and John Brown (Levi Rhodes later purchased the Brown house) were deacons of the East Baptist district. They never did have a church building. My guess would be that Elder Levi Rhodes may have belonged to the Kendall Chapel on the Pond Road but I don't know. He was known for his belief that the world would end soon etc. He reportedly didn't harvest his crops one year because he felt the end was imminent. His daughter, Emma, married into the Small family and I'll check with the Small descendants to see if they know which church Levi attended."

He also adds, I'm the genealogist with the Historical Society of Litchfield. According to the History of Litchfield, written in 1895 by Oliver Barrett Clason, Deacon Thomas Morgridge, an early settler, came to Litchfield from Harpswell. His father, William, reportedly came to Harpswell from England in 1755. Clason's work is usually very good, but I thought that I would check to see if you knew of any connection between your Kittery Morgrage family and the Litchfield Morgridge family. Also, an old farm near the Morgridge homestead was purchased in the early 1900's by my grandfather from Elder Levi Rhoades.

Obituary for Harriet E. Rhoades From: Rensselaer Republican, Thursday, August 9, 1883 (page 4) A Sad Death Mrs. Harriet E. Rhoades, wife of Mr. M. D. Rhoades died at her residence on Front street, in Rensselaer, on Monday morning, August 6th, 1883. The cause of her death was typhoid fever, from which she had been sick for a period of eighteen days. Mrs. Rhoades maiden name was Hudson. She was born in the state of Maryland, on May 22, 1849, and thus dies at the early age of 34 years and a few months. Her marriage to Marshall D. Rhoades took place October 19th, 1865. Her death is peculiarly sad in that a family of four young children, the youngest of whom is but three years old, suffer the great calamity of losing, in their tender years, the priceless blessing of a devoted mother's care. The funeral took place from her late residence, in the presence of a very large concourse of friends, and was conducted by Elder D. T. Halstead of the Christian church.

Transcript of his obituary in The Pittsfield Advertiser, June 5 1913 . "The death of Roland E Rhoades occurred at 6:15 A.M. Monday at his home on North Main street after an illness of about a week. Mr Rhoades, who was a jeweler, was well known in this section of the state, having been in business at various times in Pittsfield. He was considered something of a genius, and had invented several articles, some of them having been sold for a good sum. He leaves a wife, a small son, a daughter by a former marriage, and one brother, John Rhoades of this town. His age was 45 years. Funeral services were held at his home at 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, Rev F.S. Walker officiating. Interment was made at the village cemetery."

Roland and son Ivan are both buried in Pittsfield Village Cemetery, but it appears there is no stone and no record and that the cemetery buried someone else on top of him. Daughter Irma in Pittsfield tried resolving the question with no luck in the 1950s. Rev Frederick S Walker was a Universalist minister, at Pittsfield Universalist 1908-1915, and later at Waterville 1925-1928. Roland and his family worked in textile shops in his early years. Roland's first patent for which we find a record was filed Jan 9 1891 when Roland was age 24 and granted Jan 26 1892. It was for an improvement upon the loom.

Roland Eaton Rhoades was named after Roland L Eaton (1835-1870), son of the Rhoades family's good friends and cousins by marriage, Joseph Eaton (1800-1865) and Mary A (1809-1868). The Eatons are all in Fort Hill Cemetery in Winslow.

April 1910 Belfast Ward 2 census lists Roland E Rhodes 41 div rents at 71 1/2 High St and is a jeweler, repair work, working on own account. Not found 1900.

Roland is listed in The Maine State Directory & Gazeteer 1893, p 282, and 1894 p 333, and 1895 p311 on Main St in Pittsfield, under Jewelry, Watches, etc. 1898 Worcester MA p411 has a Roland E Rhoades, loomsetter, 123 Tainter, bds. 32 Grand. 1907 Worcester p592 has a Roland E Rhoades, rem'd from city.

Annie L Rhoades divorced Roland E Rhoades for "gross and confirmed habits of intoxication", granted 14 Jan 1899. Damages $25. Annie m2 Howard Jacobs 24 Dec 1901 Pittsfield.

Orin Soule was the son of Rufus, a Mayflower descendant. L Mae Rhoades sued Roland E Rhoades for divorce in Kennebec Co court, for desertion, vol X-p23, granted 29 Sept 1910. Divorce record says they were married 8 Jan 1900, but m/c says 8 June 1902 in Newport. Found no further mar or death rec for Lillie, under any last name. The Soule family is buried in Spring Hill Cem in Palmyra, with Lillian's name on the monument with no death date. Orin L 1846-1920; Eliza J 1844-1925.

Family legend, as told by his wife Grace who lived until 1966, says that Roland was friends with Thomas Alva Edison, and that's why his son's middle name is Edison. Roland was a jeweler who worked on clocks. Grace Flag was a schoolgirl, 27 years younger than him, who walked home past his jewelers shop in Belfast. They fell in love despite the age difference and got married. Grace also said that he was an alcoholic (also proven in the divorce record of his first wife), and had blinding migraine headaches. A family story passed down is that she being still a girl and not knowing better, as a tidy person, she emptied the little bit of rat poison left over into an old aspirin bottle to make more room. During his headaches, Roland would blindly reach into the medicine cabinet and feel around for the aspirin bottle and mistakenly took the rat poison which killed him. Grace remarried three more times.

From: The History of Small Town's Maxinkuckee Playhouse, October, 2002 Part One: For almost a dozen years after World War II, area residents had the good fortune to be entertained by one of the best straw-hat theater groups in the nation. During three months of each summer, from 1950-1961, at least eight quality plays or Broadway musicals were staged by the first Maxinkuckee Players, a group of revolving professional and college actors, many of them destined to gain prominence in the world of entertainment. As one of the founders, Martin Tahse had begun his stage career while he was a cadet at the Culver Military Academy. After graduating in 1948, he continued his involvement in dramatics at the University of Cincinnati, where he studied under Professor Paul Rutledge, head of the theater division. Out of this relationship was born the idea to create a summer theater on the shores of Lake Maxinkuckee. After about two years, co-founder and co-director Martin Tahse left the Maxinkuckee Playhouse for service in the US Air Force -- (the Korean War was going on) -- but he never succeeded in getting the theater out of his blood. After his discharge, he formed companies of Broadway shows with financial support from two of his former CMA classmates: Jackson Parriott and George Steinbrenner, who said he was an investor and didn't want to be called "an angel." No one had any objections to that. Martin eventually reached Hollywood, where he produced movies and TV shows. One of his most successful endeavors was the After-School-Television Specials aimed at young people.

From: San Diego Playbill - Theater News - 2003 Review of: "Oldest Living Confederate Widow Tells All" Martin Tahse began his theatrical career in summer stock as a producer. After three years, he formed a company in New York to produce the national tours of Broadway plays and musicals, including "The Miracle Worker", "Fiorello", "Two for the Seesaw", "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs", "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum", and "Funny Girl." Interested in exploring new areas, he accepted an offer to produce films for ABC Television. Besides producing, he began writing as story editor on the films. His credits include co-writing "The Look-Alike" and an adaptation of the novel, "Country of the Heart," for Universal and USA Cable. The latter was nominated for a Writer's Guild Award. He returned to writing alone and in all produced and/or wrote 28 films. He is returning to the theater with "Oldest Living Confederate Widow Tells All," which is his first play.

M ii. Frederick Wortman TAHSE III was born 23 Sep 1931 in Cincinnati, Hamilton, OH.

EXETER, N.H. - After more than 80 years of making legions of people smile broadly and laugh out loud, Chester Robert Tukey of Exeter, N.H., died peacefully Friday, April 28, 2017, in the arms of his longtime life partner, Doreen Currier.
Born to Clifford and Doris Tukey in Porter, Maine, Chet's young life revolved around daily comings and goings of his parents' eponymous mercantile, Tukey's General Store. Situated at the intersections of Routes 135 and 27 next to the post office in Belgrade, Maine, the store provided the first stage for Chet's uniquely affable personality.
"I've heard so many stories about how the store was the center of the town's universe," said his daughter, Lynn Bauchinger of South Portland. "That's where Dad learned his social skills, the wheeling and dealing and customer service, and that there was nothing that couldn't be fixed. His love and zest for life was all fostered right there."
His sister, Marion Hanrahan Tukey, who predeceased him by nearly 10 years, often shared stories of her brother charming his way from behind the cash register to steal away with their grandfather, Jim, to pursue his lifelong passions of fishing and hunting in and around the Belgrade Lakes region.
"Being around Dad was magic as a boy," said his adopted son, Paul Tukey, of Falmouth, who now resides in Potomac, Md. "Everyone loved him; he was always the life of the party, but he also loved camping and the quiet of the lake. He had a tremendous respect for nature and all of its joys; he's the guy who taught me how to fish, how to throw a ball, how to maneuver a chainsaw and especially how to work - all the practical, frugal life skills. He would also do anything for anyone on a moment's notice, especially his children, and I'll never ever forget that."
All those varied skills served him well after graduating with an electrician's certificate from Maine Vocational Technical Institute in South Portland. For many years Chet owned and operated Tukey's New & Used Auto Parts in Waterville, where he met his best lifelong friend, Roger Hodgdon. In the 1970s he joined the Bankers Life & Casualty company in Portland, becoming a nationally ranked insurance agent. Other careers included long stints at Crest Glass in South Portland, the Seabrook Nuclear Power Plant and then with his son's company, Tukey's Home 'n Land of Falmouth.
"The word that most comes to mind about Chet is 'generous,'" said his friend and former insurance colleague, Terry Landry, of Kingfield. "He gave his time to help all of us. If someone needed a buck to two, he would let them close a policy he had written . . . even if he could have used the money himself. One other thing: He was always looking for a deal and he often found one. He was happy as heck if he could pick something up, spruce it up, and sell it for a profit."
Never idle in the final years of his life in New Hampshire where he found great comfort with Doreen and her family, Chet remained busy as a handyman and school bus driver. With an ever-present twinkle in his eye, he retained his sense of humor until his final hours.
"He just lit up the room the minute he walked in," said Doreen, echoing the sentiments of so many. "Nobody ever had a bigger heart."
Chet is survived by his daughters Lynn and her husband Wolfgang and Jill Tukey O'Brien of Portland, as well as his adopted sons Paul Tukey and his wife Katie, Randy Tukey Boardway and his wife Lynn, of Westbrook, and a step-son Tim Tukey of Florida. He also counted Doreen's children, Michael Smith of Greenland, N.H., Kenneth Currier of Exeter, N.H., and Lisa Currier of Pompano, Fla., as his own. He leaves 10 grandchildren and a great grandson.
A burial service will be held at the Pine Grove Cemetery in Belgrade at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 7.
Chester married Vera Jane KIRK, daughter of Charles Andrew KIRK and Debbie Adela CHRISTY, 13 Aug 1957 in Belgrade, Kennebec, ME. Vera was born in 1936 in Bucyrus, Crawford, OH.
