On 9 July 1638, Boston selectmen "agreed that Robert Reynolds shall have five acres of marsh ground, at Muddy River, in exchange for five acres of his upland there" [BTR 1:34].

On 27 April 1640, the "parcel of marsh at Hog Island is tendered to Goodman Marshall and Goodman Raynolds and brother Gridley, to be sold to them at such rates as shall be agreed" [BTR 1:53]. On 31 August 1640, the "parcel of marsh ground unallotted at Hog Island, formerly tendered to our brother Marshall, brother Gridley, and brother Raynolds to purchase, is now resigned up to our brother Marshall, by our brother Raynolds and our brother Gridley, he paying for the same twenty shillings" [BTR 1:55]. On 7 February 1641/2, there is "granted unto Rob[er]t Reynolds three acres of marsh at Muddy River, for which he is to pay six shillings eight pence unto the town, according to what he should have paid for that parcel of marsh which was to be purchased by him at Hog Island, but is now sold unto Thomas Marshall" [BTR 1:66]. In the 1645 Boston Book of Possessions, "Robert Reinolds" held one parcel: "one house and garden" [BBOP 37, 76]. (A diagram of the location and later subdivisions of this lot may be found between pages 20 and 21 of Reynolds Descendants.)

On 5 March 1645[6?], "Robert Reinols of Boston" sold to "Henry Stevens fifteen acres of land at Muddy River" [SLR 1:58]. On 18 August 1653, "Robeart Renoles of Boston ., shoemaker," sold to "[Edward Kibby] . one parcel of ground containing by estimation twenty acres . in Muddy River" [SLR 1:334-35].

In his will, dated 20 April 1658 and proved 27 July 1659, "Robert Reynolds now living in Boston" bequeathed to "my wife my house with all that appertains unto it with my marsh ground at Muddy River with one lot of ground at Long Island so long as she liveth with all my household stuff whatever in my house"; "after her decease I have given my house & orchard to my son Nathaniell, and to his heirs forever, & if he should die without children, or any one child lawfully begotten of his body, then his wife to enjoy the said house & orchard so long as she liveth, and after her decease to return to my four daughters' children, that is to say, one part to my daughter Ruth Whitney & to her eldest son, a second part to my daughter Tabitha Abdy & her son Mathew Abdy & if he should die to her two daughters either of them alike, a third part to my daughter Sarah Mason & her son Robert Mason & if he die to her daughter Sarah, and a fourth part to my daughter Mary Sanger & her son Nathaniell & if he die to her next child either son or daughter"; to "my daughter Ruth Whitney twenty pounds"; to "my daughter Tabitha twenty pounds"; to "my daughter Sarah twenty pounds"; to "my daughter Mary twenty pounds"; "for the payment of these legacies I have eight acres of marsh land which if my son Nathaniell Raynolds will pay twenty pounds in good pay towards this fourscore pound then he to have & enjoy my marsh land"; residue to "my wife," she to be executrix; "I join my son Nathaniell Reynolds with her to be as helpful to my wife his mother as possibly he can ., and if it should please God that I do live so long as any of my estate should be spent, as it is likely it may, I & my wife being stricken in age & are almost past our labor, then for every one of them to abate proportionably alike" [SPR 1:324-25].

The inventory of the estate of "Robert Reynolds," taken on an unknown date, was untotaled, of which 10s. was real estate: "land at Long Island," 10s.; "meadow at Muddy River," and "a house & land in Boston" [SPR 3:147-49].

On 10 December 1662, "Nathaniell Reynolds, son & heir of the late Robert Reynolds of Boston shoemaker, sends greetings, whereas the said Robert Reynolds in the year sixteen hundred forty & six or thereabouts sold a parcel of land eleven perches or thereabouts to Thomas Painter, who sold the same to Thomas Wyborne of Scituate, who also sold the same to John Lake of Boston, tailor, as by his deed bearing date the twenty-sixth of June sixteen hundred forty & eight amply appeareth, on which said land the said John Lake hath built a dwelling house thereupon, the said Robert Reynolds acknowledging in his lifetime his being fully satisfied for the same, now know all men that I Nathaniell Reynolds son & heir of said Robert Reynolds" confirms the sale and quitclaims his rights in this parcel [SLR 4:260-61; see also BBOP 45 (entry for John Lake)].

BIRTH: By about 1598 (based on estimated date of marriage).

DEATH: Boston 27 April 1659 [BVR 70].

MARRIAGE: By about 1623 Mary _____. "Mary wife of Robert Rainolls deceased January 18" 1663[4?] at Boston [BVR 90].

CHILDREN:

RUTH REYNOLDS, b. say 1623; m. by 1643 John Whitney (eldest known child b. Watertown 17 September 1643 [WaVR 1:10]), son of JOHN WHITNEY 1635, Watertown [Bond 642-43].

TABITHA REYNOLDS, b. say 1625; m. by 1648 MATTHEW ABDY 1635, Boston [GM 2:1:6-8].

NATHANIEL REYNOLDS, b. about 1627 (deposed on 21 May 1674 "aged about 47 years" [SLR 8:406-7]); m. (1) Boston 30 December 1657 Sarah Dwight [BVR 63], daughter of JOHN DWIGHT 1635, Watertown [GM 2:2:376]; m. (2) by 1664 Priscilla Brackett, daughter of PETER BRACKETT 1639, Braintree [NEHGR 155:286].

SARAH REYNOLDS, b. say 1629; m. by about 1655 Robert Mason (eldest known child b. by about 1655 [Reynolds Descendants 57]).

MARY REYNOLDS, b. say 1631; m. by 1650 Richard Sanger (eldest known child b. Watertown 26 September 1650 [WaVR 1:15; Bond 421-22]).

COMMENTS: Savage presented this immigrant as "ROBERT, Watertown 1635, shoemaker, freeman 3 September 1634, was dismissed by the church 29 March 1636, to form a church at Wethersfield, but probably after few years removed to Boston" [Savage 3:526]. Bond and Stiles also made this connection of Robert Reynolds with Watertown and Wethersfield [Bond 912; Wethersfield Hist 2:540]. These sources are all dependent on one Connecticut record. On 29 March 1636, "the church of Watertown in the Massachusetts" dismissed six men, including "Rob[er]te Reynold," to "form anew in a church covenant in the River of Conectecott" [CCCR 1:2]. The subject of the present sketch was a member of the church at Boston, while JOHN REYNOLDS 1634, Watertown was a member of Watertown church at least a year before the Connecticut record given just above, so we conclude that the Connecticut record pertains to John Reynolds, and there is no connection of Robert Reynolds with Watertown and Wethersfield. (The claim that Robert Reynolds of Boston was granted land in Watertown [Reynolds Descendants 15] misconstrues the grant of land at Muddy River by the town of Boston [BTR 1:25].)

Robert Reynolds supported Captain ROBERT KEAYNE 1635, Boston in one or another of the latter's public disputes [GM 2:4:131-32. As a consequence, in 1653 Keayne included in his long and elaborate will a bequest to Reynolds: "I give unto our brother Renolds, shoemaker, senior, twenty shillings as a token of my respect to him, if he be living two years after my decease, not forgetting a word that he spoke publicly and seasonably in the time of my distress and other men's vehement opposition against me" [Apologia 42].

BIBLIOGRAPHIC NOTE: In 1931 Marion H. Reynolds prepared an exhaustive genealogical and biographical account of this immigrant [Marion H. Reynolds, The History and Some of the Descendants of Robert and Mary Reynolds (1630?-1931) of Boston, Mass. (Brooklyn, 1931)], cited above as Reynolds Descendants.

Previous to his settlement in Washington, he married Mehitabel Farnsworth, dau of Simeon Farnsworth Sr. He was a prominent citizen and frequently held office. He was chosen town clerk and first selectman, at the first town meeting held after the name of the town was changed from Camden to Washington.

MA & ME Families in the Ancestry of Walter Goodwin Davis, Phoebe Tilton section, or the 1996 NEHGS alphabetical edition v3 p254-255 names all 11 ch and the move to Dexter, Maine.

- 26 M v. Mark SAFFORD was born 12 May 1773 in Washington, Cheshire, NH and died 29 Aug 1777 in Washington, Cheshire, NH.
- 27 M vi. Simeon SAFFORD was born 17 May 1775 in Washington, Cheshire, NH and died 27 May 1777 in Washington, Cheshire, NH.

20. Thomas REYNOLDS (*Thomas*⁵, *Nathaniel*⁴, *Nathaniel*³, *Nathaniel (Capt)*², *Robert*¹) was born 27 Jan 1762 in Bridgewater, Plymouth, MA and died 9 Dec 1851 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME.

Marriage date from C.R.1 - First Church in Bridgewater, now the First Church in West Bridgewater. Thomas buried in the Town Cemetery, Benton, ME per Rev War soldier listing; Benton says there is no cemetery with that name and they have no location for him. More likely is with his son Parmenas who has many extended family with him in Ames Cem.

Thomas is a proven double descendant of Mayflower passengers Edward Doty, Stephen Hopkins and Francis Cooke. Rev War soldier.

Thomas married Tabitha THAYER, daughter of Jeremiah THAYER and Tabitha LEAVITT, 10 Feb 1785 in Bridgewater, Plymouth, MA. Tabitha was born 11 Jul 1767 in Bridgewater, Plymouth, MA and died between 1830 and 1840 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME.

"Robert & Mary Reynolds of Boston" says Tabitha Thayer Reynolds died 1854 in Winthrop ME. I do not find any evidence even hinting at this. Why would she move from Winslow 4 towns away to Winthrop? None of her children lived in Winthrop and Thomas continued to live in Winslow. Tabitha shows in the 1830 Winslow census, but not in the 1840 or 1850. Even a search of 1850 Kennebec County or even Maine census for just the first name of Tabitha does not find her. Neither does a search of Winthrop vital records or cemetery records. It seems that she must have died in the 1830s in Winslow.

28. Simeon SAFFORD (*Mehitabel FARNSWORTH*⁶, *Simeon FARNSWORTH Sr*⁵, *Ruth SHATTUCK*⁴, *Ruth WHITNEY*³, *Ruth REYNOLDS*², *Robert*¹) was born 29 Jul 1776 in Washington, Cheshire, NH and died 13 Sep 1845 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

History of Washington NH p591 (free online at archive.org) says Simeon was a mason by trade; lists 7 ch. Simeon was named after his maternal grandfather Farnsworth. Simeon Safford descends from Mayflower passenger Isaac Allerton (Remember Allerton2 Abigail Maverick3 Martha Ward4 Martha Tuttle5 Martha Haskell6 John Safford7 Simeon Safford8). Further documentation as it is found will be below, especially looking at the family as a whole corroborating the families' moves from Harvard to Washington to Dexter, esp: MA & ME Families in the Ancestry of Walter Goodwin Davis, Phoebe Tilton section, or the 1996 NEHGS alphabetical edition v3 p254-255 details the entire family with both Simeon and his brother John moving to Dexter.

Simeon and Sally are buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Dexter, he being buried Sept 20.

Dexter VR Book I says Simeon Safford b 29 July 1773 and Sally b 8 Oct 1775. Saffords in America says he was born 29 July 1777. History of Washington and Walter Goodwin Davis says born 29 July 1776.

"Maine Place Names & the Peopling of its Towns", Penobscot County edition, by Ava Harriet Chadbourne 1957, in the chapter on Dexter p22-23 says: "The township of Dexter was surveyed in 1772, but remained unsettled until the turn of the century..." "Ebenezer Small had moved from Alton NH to Athens in 1799 and in the following year had arrived at the present Dexter. In the spring of 1801 he brought his wife in on a hand-sled from Harmony." Simeon's wife Sarah Rogers came from Alton NH per her son Hiram's d/c, and his siblings. "In 1803 Seba French of Washington NH came. During the years 1803-1805, Samuel Copeland, Simeon and John Stafford [sic Safford], Hugh Maxwell, and the Shepleys and Smiths moved from Washington, New Hampshire, to Elkinston, as the plantation was then called." "About 1807, immigration increased with such rapidity that a road was laid out from Garland and a schoolhouse was built..."

Early deeds for Simeon and his brother John show that they owned adjoining lots 10 & 11 on the ridge overlooking the town, which today is prime property, as it probably was then. Deeds also mentioned that the lots were surveyed for the town by Simeon Safford.

See also the Eastern Gazette series of stories on Dexter's first settlers and their descendants.

Changed his name to Stafford. Family listed in History of Washington NH p592-594: Ward prepared for college at Phillips Academy, at Andover, Mass., and entered the sophomore class at Yale College in 1809, where he graduated Sept. 9, 1812. He studied theology at Yale, and was licensed to preach in 1815. He began his ministerial labors in the city of New York, where he labored chiefly as a missionary for the Female Missionary Society for the poor of New York, and for the New York Marine Missionary Society. He organized the Marine Bible Society of New York, in 1817, and it was through his efforts that the Mariners' Church was built in that city, in 1820.

In 1820 he became agent of the American Bible Society, his work being confined to the Middle and some of the Southern states. In 1822 he became pastor of the Bowery Church in New York City, where he remained until 1828. He then removed to New Jersey, and in 1830 became pastor of a church in Youngstown, Ohio. In 1837 feeble health compelled his resignation, and he returned to the East, and after preaching for a short time at West Stockbridge, Mass., he became principal of a ladies' seminary at Pittsfield, Mass. He was afterward engaged in teaching in Hudson and Brooklyn, NY. In 1844 he removed to Newark, NJ, and thence to Bloomfield, in the same state, in 1845. He died in Bloomfield, Mar. 26, 1851. He was married to Hannah Ward of Newark, NJ, Mar. 23, 1819. She died at Youngstown, Ohio, Dec. 13, 1836. His second wife was Mary L. Burnham of Derry, NH, whom he married Oct. 1, 1841. 36. Abigail Thayer REYNOLDS (Thomas⁶, Thomas⁵, Nathaniel⁴, Nathaniel³, Nathaniel (Capt)², Robert¹) was born 2 Jun 1790 in Bridgewater, Plymouth, MA and died 1 Jun 1869 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME.

Abigail Reynolds is a double descendant of Mayflower Pilgrim Edward Doty. This Mayflower connection is documented in the Mayflower Society's Edward Doty silver books through both Edward Doty's son John and daughter Mary. The connections are Edward Doty¹, John², Elizabeth³, Elizabeth Morse⁴, and Betty Turner⁵; and also Edward¹, Mary², Hannah Hatch³, Japhet Turner⁴, and then Betty⁵ again; Thomas Reynolds⁶, and Abigail Reynolds⁷. Also descended from Stephen Hopkins and Francis Cooke. Contact Roland Rhoades for my Mayflower application worksheets if you'd also like to be a documented Mayflower descendant. Abigail's middle name is based on second hand oral history.

Abigail married Rufus RHOADES, son of Solomon RHODES and Eleanor RHOADS, 21 Mar 1811 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME. Rufus was born in 1787 in Pelham, Hampshire, MA and died 9 Jan 1873 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME.

Indexed as Benfus and looks like Benfus, but I believe it was re-transcribed from the originals which said Rufus not Benfus. Delete Benfur/Benfus as a middle name.

1870 Winslow Rufus Rhoades age 84 b NH. Death record age abt 87.

Rufus served in The War of 1812 with the Winslow Army unit. Pvt, Capt J L Childs Co, Lt Col H Moore's Regt; raised at Winslow, service at Wiscasset Sept 12-27, 1814. Adna Reynolds also served with this same unit. His occupation was a farmer, which he pursued until he was 84 years old. At that time he was living with son Snell Rhoades and his wife Harriet. We are not sure where he and Abigail are buried, but there are two "empty" lots right next to his son John and his wife Nancy in Fort Hill Cemetery, Winslow. Probing indicates two coffins there. Since John died before his father, perhaps the money saved for Rufus and Abigail's stone went for his son's stone instead, and no one else had the means or interest in providing stones for this first generation in Maine. A new stone has been placed there for them 2011.

"The Eastern Mail" paper of Waterville Maine ran an article "Talk About Winslow" in its April 22, 1864 issue about the early settlers of Winslow (when Rufus Rhoades was still alive). I found a transcript at the Taconett Genealogy Library in Winslow. Selected quotes include from Page 44: "These farms are stony and harder to till than any other except that owned by Col. Britton. Rufus Rhoades formerly owned the farm now owned by Col. Britton. ... R. Rhoades [came] from Pelham, NH". We know that the Rhoades family came from Pelham Mass to NH when Rufus was a child [History of Antrim, Hillsborough, NH]. Rufus told census enumerators that he was born in NH. Perhaps he really was born in Pelham Mass and only remembered NH from his childhood and confused the right town with the wrong state when he talked with this reporter. Hillsborough and Antrim NH (see Solomon's story) border each other; Pelham NH is a long ways away on the Mass border, and no where near Pelham MA. My guess is that Rufus was born in Pelham MA like the children born before and after him, and that they later moved to NH.

Fortyone years ago he was extremely poor and intemperate with a young family coming on. Family cemetery is Fort Hill Cemetery in Winslow. Correspondence: "Hello, I am a direct descendant of Almira Reynolds Richards of Winslow Maine. In reading your text about Rufus Rhoads and Abigail Thayer Reynolds (Almira's sister), I saw the mention of Hillsborough. I have seen where it says Almira was born in Hillsborough instead of Winslow. Almira married John Richards son of Captain Samuel Richards of Goffstown, New Hampshire. Samuel Richards and his wife Margaret Pushor had 9 children most born in Winslow. There seems to be a controversy as to when Samuel Richards was born and who his parents were. Abner Morse in the Richards genealogy has him the son of John Richards. A Whitman Richards says this is wrong he has to be the son of Benjamin. The Goffstown Richards' genealogy says, they don't know where he's from. The DAR has 1758?. I was wondering, if when you were investigating the Hillsborough connection if you ran into any Richards. They all seem to have come from NH to Winslow. Clutching at a straw, maybe Samuel traveled with the Rhoads and Reynolds. I realize you are probably very busy, but I thought I'd give it a shot. Although my sister is in Waterville, I am in New Jersey and only get to Maine once a year. Any info or advice would be greatly appreciated. Thanks again, Elizabeth Benowitz" kajaeba@comcast.net 10/09

Calvin married Rozilla SHEPLEY, daughter of Jonathan SHEPLEY and Nancy SPRAGUE, in Jan 1834. Rozilla was born 12 Sep 1807 in Greene, Androscoggin, ME and died 2 Dec 1888 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

The Dexter Gazette 12-1888

Died in Dexter, Dec. 2nd Mrs. Rozilla Safford (widow of the late Calvin Safford) aged 81 years 2 months and 20 days.

Mrs. Safford has been a member of the Dexter Universalist church from its organization, and in all of her long and checkered life journey has daily been governed by the promptings of her sanctifying and consoling faith. As an affectionate and faithful wife, a tender and loving mother, a genial and obliging neighbor and friend, she won the respect and esteem of all who knew her. She has been called to part with three beloved children, (a daughter and two sons) an affectionate and dear companion and many other cherished friends; but she believed and felt that they had gone up to the Father's house and in God's own good time she would go up to join them, never more to be separated, and in this comforting assurance, when she was called, she was resigned and willing to depart. Rozilla's mother is a descendant of immigrant Edward & Christian Sprague: The Sprague Project.

The Eastern Gazette 2-28-1907, p.5 DOD 1907-02-22 Dexter: Mrs. Ruby Jumper Safford who passed away on Friday afternoon at her home on Free St. was born in Dexter March 28, 1817, the third child of Edmund and Sally Jumper. [D/C adds of apoplexy] She was one of a family of ten children, only one of whom, the eldest, Mrs. Abigail D. Sturtevant of this town, is living. She was married to Hiram Safford who passed away about ten years ago. Her long life was spent in this vicinity and most of it in this town. She had ten children, four of whom are living: Mrs. Helen Dove of Upton, Mass., Mrs. Ruby Campbell of this town, with whom she lived, Mrs. Sarah Bellows of Worcester, Mass., and Charley Safford of Westbrook. There are twenty grandchildren and two great-grand-children. Mrs. Safford was a woman of exceptionally fine qualities and drew about her a large circle of devoted personal friends. She was quiet and unassuming in manner, dearly beloved by those who knew her best. Her mind was clear to the last and she carried her weight of years as a crown. Tenderly cared for by her daughter, her last days were full of brightness and peace. She trusted in her Saviour, and was ready for the Master's call. Funeral services were held from the home Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. Stanley Gates Spear officiating. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. S. L. Small and Mrs. W. H. Carr. The bearers were Samuel Eldridge, Charles Favor, E. H. Jones and A. W. Kimball. There were many beautiful floral offerings, emblematic of the grace and beauty of the life that had gone. The aged sister, the children and many relatives have the sympathy of all in their loss.

Nancy Rhoades died September 17, 1904 in Pittsfield. She wrote her will July 6, 1903. Heirs mentioned were: Clara E Monk of Pittsfield; Annie L Briggs of Belfast; John F Rhoades of Pittsfield; Roland E Rhoades, residence unknown; Martha E Rhoades, granddaughter; William Rhoades of Winslow, grandson; Melvin Rhoades of Winslow, grandson; Lawrence Rhoades and Harry Rhoades, grandsons, in Kansas City, Missouri. Son Frank C got nothing; son Roland nothing, son John F $25, daughter Anna $25, daughter Clara $50 and personal property, granddaughter Irma $25, granddaughter Martha $25, granddaughter Hazel M nothing. Nancy belonged to the Universalist Church of Pittsfield, as did her daughter Clara Monk, and as did her granddaughter Irma, daughter of Roland.

Obituary, Sept 22, 1904 Pittsfield Advertiser - Mrs Nancy Rhoades, aged 80 years, died Saturday night [Sept 17], of paralysis. The funeral service, conducted by Rev L W Coons of the First Universalist Church [of Pittsfield], was held at 7 o'clock Monday evening, at her late residence, the home of her son-in-law, Chas F Monk, Grove Street. The remains were taken to Winslow on the 8:10 train, Tuesday, for interment. FTDNA Y-test says Roland Rhoades matches to Peavey, not Rhoades, and I do not match a 3rd cousin descendant of John & Nancy.

Nancy married John Bryant RHOADES, son of Rufus RHOADES and Abigail Thayer REYNOLDS, 7 Aug 1843 in Stoughton, Norfolk, MA. John was born 27 Sep 1819 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME and died 29 Apr 1869 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME.

At the NERGC 2009 conference, I looked at and immediately bought the new book VR of Stoughton MA to 1850 by David Allen Lambert 2008. John and Nancy's marriage date had been missing after nearly 30 years of searching. For some reason, they had come back to MA to marry, even though both were born and lived in central Maine. The index shows other Rhoades and Reynolds cousins in town there, and also fills in some blanks for previous generations. They were married by Isaac Smith, Pastor of the Baptist Society in East Stoughton, "both parties from Stoughton".

John B Rhoades died April 29, 1869, leaving a personal estate worth $1000 and real estate worth $2000. His land is described as about 100 acres bounded on the west by the Sebasticook River, south by land of John B Stratton, north by Chales C Stratton and Charles E Warren, and east by L. Bangs. Left 7 minor children in 1869: George, Clara, Frank, Anna, John, Fred, and Roland. John's father Rufus age over 80. John B Stratton, administrator. Estate included 8 casks containing 100 gallons of wine. Bills from Dr Bantelle and Dr Crosby. Silas H Rhoades bought some land for $725. John also had land in Winslow known as the bog lot, 35 acres worth $75. Nancy Rhoades was appointed guardian to Clara E, Frank C, Anna L, John F, Fred L, and Roland E, Feb 28, 1870. John, Fred, and Roland each owned 1/7 of the homestead farm. Nancy sold this 3/7 in 1881 to pay expenses of guardianship. The Winslow VR book is unclear on the death date of John, but the microfilm of the original records, v2 p237 clearly says April 29, 1869. His mother is on the same page as June 1, 1869. Those dates "are also recorded on page 307 of the New Book", but that does not seem to be on the microfilm. I purchased a new stone for him in 2011, since his old marble stone is nearly illegible from acid rain and being broken by vandals.

In the East Somerset Co. Register 1912 Annie (Bickford, Roland's first wife) Rhoades m. ___ Jacobs child : Irma M. Also, John F. Rhoades, carpenter, wife Mabel E. (Tracy), dau. Evelyn E. No other Rhoades listed in Pittsfield.

In Detroit (Pittsfield RFD 3) Fred RHOADES is no relation, b in England to Oliver Rhoades, d in Detroit 3 Nov 1911 age 84,8,22.

At the NERGC 2009 conference, I looked at and immediately bought the new book VR of Stoughton MA to 1850 by David Allen Lambert 2008. John and Nancy's marriage date had been missing after nearly 30 years of searching. For some reason, they had come back to MA to marry, even though both were born and lived in central Maine. The index shows other Rhoades and Reynolds cousins in town there, and also fills in some blanks for previous generations. They were married by Isaac Smith, Pastor of the Baptist Society in East Stoughton, "both parties from Stoughton".

John B Rhoades died April 29, 1869, leaving a personal estate worth $1000 and real estate worth $2000. His land is described as about 100 acres bounded on the west by the Sebasticook River, south by land of John B Stratton, north by Chales C Stratton and Charles E Warren, and east by L. Bangs. Left 7 minor children in 1869: George, Clara, Frank, Anna, John, Fred, and Roland. John's father Rufus age over 80. John B Stratton, administrator. Estate included 8 casks containing 100 gallons of wine. Bills from Dr Bantelle and Dr Crosby. Silas H Rhoades bought some land for $725. John also had land in Winslow known as the bog lot, 35 acres worth $75. Nancy Rhoades was appointed guardian to Clara E, Frank C, Anna L, John F, Fred L, and Roland E, Feb 28, 1870. John, Fred, and Roland each owned 1/7 of the homestead farm. Nancy sold this 3/7 in 1881 to pay expenses of guardianship. The Winslow VR book is unclear on the death date of John, but the microfilm of the original records, v2 p237 clearly says April 29, 1869. His mother is on the same page as June 1, 1869. Those dates "are also recorded on page 307 of the New Book", but that does not seem to be on the microfilm. I purchased a new stone for him in 2011, since his old marble stone is nearly illegible from acid rain and being broken by vandals.

In the East Somerset Co. Register 1912 Annie (Bickford, Roland's first wife) Rhoades m. ___ Jacobs child : Irma M. Also, John F. Rhoades, carpenter, wife Mabel E. (Tracy), dau. Evelyn E. No other Rhoades listed in Pittsfield.

Nancy Rhoades died September 17, 1904 in Pittsfield. She wrote her will July 6, 1903. Heirs mentioned were: Clara E Monk of Pittsfield; Annie L Briggs of Belfast; John F Rhoades of Pittsfield; Roland E Rhoades, residence unknown; Martha E Rhoades, granddaughter; William Rhoades of Winslow, grandson; Melvin Rhoades of Winslow, grandson; Lawrence Rhoades and Harry Rhoades, grandsons, in Kansas City, Missouri. Son Frank C got nothing; son Roland nothing, son John F $25, daughter Anna $25, daughter Clara $50 and personal property, granddaughter Irma $25, granddaughter Martha $25, granddaughter Hazel M nothing. Nancy belonged to the Universalist Church of Pittsfield, as did her daughter Clara Monk, and as did her granddaughter Irma, daughter of Roland.

Obituary, Sept 22, 1904 Pittsfield Advertiser - Mrs Nancy Rhoades, aged 80 years, died Saturday night [Sept 17], of paralysis. The funeral service, conducted by Rev L W Coons of the First Universalist Church [of Pittsfield], was held at 7 o'clock Monday evening, at her late residence, the home of her son-in-law, Chas F Monk, Grove Street. The remains were taken to Winslow on the 8:10 train, Tuesday, for interment. FTDNA Y-test says Roland Rhoades matches to Peavey, not Rhoades, and I do not match a 3rd cousin descendant of John & Nancy.

Mrs. Sarah M., wife of Cyrus Foss, who has been critically ill for some time, died at her home on Pleasant street last Sunday morning. She suffered from a shock Jan. 21 that caused partial paralysis and although there was improvement at first in her condition it was not such as to encourage hopes for her recovery. Her only child, Mrs. T. J. Springall of Malden, Mass., came here at once and cared for her mother to the last. Mrs. Foss was a daughter of Amos Abbott and sister of George A. Abbott, who gave our beautiful library. She also took great interest in the building and presented the valuable painting of Lincoln which adorns its walls. About two months ago the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Foss was celebrated by the relatives and friends in a quiet way and was a very pleasant event. She leaves a husband, daughter and one sister, Mrs. Emily Springall. Mrs. Foss was 78 years old last October. The funeral was held at her late home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Gould officiating.

Sarah married Cyrus FOSS in 1852. Cyrus was born 17 Oct 1823 in Alfred, York, ME and died 6 Mar 1910 in Malden, Middlesex, MA.

Death of Cyrus Foss

The remains of Cyrus Foss, whose death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Springall in Malden, arrived here on the three o'clock train Monday afternoon and were taken to the Universalist church, where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. William H. Gould of the church of the Messiah, Portland, officiating. The bearers were Messrs. W. E. Brewster, Dana Crockett, Charles R. Favor and Charles M. Sawyer.

Mr. Foss, who died Sunday, had for many years been one of Dexter's prominent business men. He was born in Alfred, Oct. 17, 1823, and his parents shortly afterward moved to Benton Falls. He was educated in the public schools, including a term in the High school, and later acquired the trade of a carpenter. He came to Dexter in 1842 and was employed at his trade until 1846, when he became a member of the firm of G. Jewett & Co., foundrymen, and later in company with Ansel Libby established a tinsmithing and kitchen furnishing business which continued until 1887 when Dana Crockett became a partner. In 1890 Mr. Foss relinquished his interest in the business and since he had led a retired life.

He always took an active interest in town affairs. He served as a member of the board of selectmen two years and as town treasurer one term. In 1872-73 he was a member of the legislature from this class. He was one of the promoters of the Dexter and Newport railroad and for a number of years he was a director in the company. He later became interested in the extension to Dover. He was a director of the First National bank 1877 and for several years president of the institution, being succeeded by William E. Brewster, the present head of the institution.

In 1852 he was married to Miss Sarah M., daughter of Amos Abbott of this town. The only surviving child is Mrs. Springall of Malden, with whom the deceased has made his home winters for several years. Mr. Foss was largely interested in local real estate. He was a man highly respected, and his death is a matter of universal regret.

Mrs. Emily J. Springall.

The death of this esteemed and beloved woman deserves more than mere passing notice, for she was a worthy representative of the men and women who have made the homelife of Dexter healthful, strong and attractive. The second child of Amos Abbott and Mehitable Safford, she was born in Dexter, June 1, 1827. Her father came to Dexter when a young man and with his brother, Jeremiah, established the woolen industry of the Amos Abbott Company. Her mother's family was the third family to settle in town. In 1855 Miss Abbott was married to John B. Springall, a young English physician. For three years they made their home in the neighboring town of Sangerville where the first child, Amos, was born. Then they came to Dexter where Dr. Springall soon established a promising business. But the joy of the growing home was saddened by the death of the husband in 1860, leaving Mrs. Springall with the care of three small children, the youngest of whom, Lizzie, was born after her father's death. Bravely the young mother accepted the great responsibility given her, and wisely and beautifully fulfilled her sacred trust, making a cheerful, happy home, surrounding the children with the self-sacrificing affection and gentle guidance of Christian motherhood. However, the service of this Christian woman was not confined to the home circle, but through the years many a sorrowing and troubled neighbor was comforted and cheered by the sympathizing word or helpful act of this true friend who had herself been through the deep waters. To all those who had the privilege of knowing her, Mrs. Springall lived a brave, faithful, useful life, characterized by a living faith, a constant hopefulness, a loyal affection. She was one of the most useful and devoted members of the Universalist church, helped and helping in all the Christian offices of religion. Busy thoughtful of others to the last she fell asleep in the Lord in the early morning hour of Saturday, Sept. 9.

The three children, Amos A., John W., and Lizzie S., are all esteemed citizens of Dexter.

The funeral services were held at the home, in the quiet hour of the Sabbath afternoon, Sept. 10, conducted by the pastor of her church.

AMOS ABBOTT SPRINGALL

The entire community was saddened Wednesday morning when learning of the death Tuesday night at 11.30 o'clock of Amos A. Springall of this town, one of Dexter's most prominent business men and treasurer of the Dexter Loan & Building Association since its inception 42 years ago.

Mr. Springall was stricken about ten days ago with heart trouble and although at times hopes were held for his recovery he grew steadily worse on Tuesday and passed away at 11.30 P. M.

He was, born in Dexter 74 years ago the son of Dr. John and Emily Abbott Springall. His education was received here with the exception of a pharmaceutic course received elsewhere, his entire life had been passed in Dexter, where he had always maintained a great interest in the municipal affairs of the town. He was a deeply interested member of the First Universalist parish, where he was a regular church attendant, having for many years served as Sunday school librarian, and until last year was church treasurer for many years and at the time of his death a member of the board of trustees.

A man of highest integrity, his opinion was sought by many in various affairs. He was a director of the local branch of the Merrill Trust Co., and had been for several years.

Mr. Springall was a member of Bedivere Lodge, K. of P., and the Men's Club of the First Universalist church.

Mr. Springall's first business enterprise was in the drug business, conducting a drug store in the old Mercantile Block for over 15 years, it being in his office that the Dexter Loan & Building Association was born and functioned during its early life. Later he sold his drug business to Davis & Wright. He has served Dexter in many public capacities, as tax collector for several years and as a very efficient selectman for several terms. Since the erection of the Abbott Memorial Library, Mr. Springall has served continuously as a member of the board of trustees.

In whatever he undertook, one could feel that it would be work well accomplished as Mr. Springall never did anything but what he put his very best into the undertaking. Truly in this man Dexter loses one of the finest of citizens.

Mr. Springall is survived by one sister, Miss Lizzie Springall, and by one brother, John W. Springall, of this town. Mrs. Springall passed away several years ago and her sister, Miss Annie Dustin has made her home with Mr. Springall since that time. To the family the deep sympathy of the entire community is extended.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 standard time, at the Universalist church. The Eastern Gazette 6-26-1930, p.5

Association, which position he held at the time of his death.

About 1906 he entered the Insurance business and at the time of his death he had built up a large volume of business in this line.

He served as chairman of the board of selectmen of Dexter one year, and at one time was treasurer of the town and collector of taxes. He was interested in all projects for the betterment of the town. Death of a Prominent Citiz en.

Our people were much suprised and grieved last Saturday evening to learn that Job Abbott of the Amos Abbot Co. had passed away. Some two years ago Mr. Abbott had a shock from which he recovered and had enjoyed his usual health up to the afternoon of his death. He was about town Saturday forenoon, apparently as well as usual while at the dinner table he complained of pain in his head which later passed to his chest. A physician was summoned and he rallied from the trouble and was not thought to be in immediate danger until about nine o'clock in the evening when those in attendance heard him cough while they were preparing some medicine and hurrying to his side found he had expired. His death was due to another shock. While of course it was realized there was danger yet his sudden death was entirely unexpected and came as a great blow to his family. But very few about town knew of his sickness and the news of his death was the first intimation they had that he was not in his usual health. The funeral was held at the house on Church street Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. H. Gould officiating. The mill and places of business in town were closed during the afternoon out of regard for the deceased. The bearers were C. W. Curtis, C. M. Sawyer, Dana Crockett, C. P. McCrillis, Samuel Eldridge, H. S. Dole. The burial was in Elmwood cemetery.

Job Abbott was born in this town Dec. 15, 1827, and was the son of Jeremiah Abbott. He was educated in the common schools and Westbrook Academy from which he graduated. On returning to town he worked in the woolen mills for a time and later became connected with the firm of Amos Abbott & Co. which comprised his father and Amos Abbott. Later he and George A. Abbott entered the firm. After the death of George A. Abbott the business was incorporated as the Amos Abbott Co. and Job Abbott has since remained as head of the business and its President, although for some years past he had given up active work in the office and had taken more interest in farming. He owned two farms, one located on the west side of Grove street and the other on the Dover road. Mr. J. C. Bailey has been his farm superinten- tentend for a good many years and Mr. Abbott has heartily enjoyed this branch of his business.

Mr. Abbott was a member of the Universalist church in this village and was devoted to its interests. As a citizen he was public spirited and was ever found advocating good morals and a high standard of life. As a friend he was honored by all and his death will be sincerely mourned.

Mr. Abbott married Miss Amanda Field, who with two children, Arthur P. and Miss Helen C. Abbott, survive him. They have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in their affliction.

Job married Amanda L FIELD, daughter of Robert FIELD, 15 Dec 1854 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME. Amanda was born 29 Apr 1838 in Carmel, Penobscot, ME and died 13 Dec 1924 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

The Eastern Gazette 12-18-1924, p.5

The death of Mrs. Amanda Field Abbott, widow of the late Job Abbott of this town, occurred at her home on Church street Saturday, after a long period of failing health, at the age of 86 years.

The deceased was born in Carmel, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field of that town. At the age of 16 years she came to Dexter as the bride of the late Job Abbott, the pioneer woolen manufacturer of this town, whose death occurred in 1903.

Mrs. Abbott was a faithful member of the First Universalist church of this town and has been interested in philanthropic and charitable work. She was also a generous and interested member of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Abbott is survived by one son, Arthur P. Abbott, of this town and by a daughter, Mrs. Helen Abbott Bucknam, who has most tenderly cared for her mother in the home which they occupied together.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home on Church street, Rev. Stanley Gates Spear, pastor of the First Universalist church of Roxbury, Mass., and a former pastor of the local church officiating, assisted by Rev. Wm. Garner, pastor of the First Universalist church of Dexter. The bearers were Messrs. Charles G. Towle, Fred W. Barker, Bert Bailey and Thomas A. Smart. The services were attended by many friends and neighbors and there was a profusion of floral offerings, bearing silent testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Children from this marriage were:

SUDDEN DEATH OF ARTHUR P. ABBOTT

Member of Famous Old Family of Woolen Mill Men-Long Outstanding and Honored Citizen of Community

Arthur P. Abbott, 72, long one of the outstanding citizens of Dexter, died shortly after noon Tuesday, at his home on Free street. His health had been impaired for some time. Shortly after he reached his office, he complained of not feeling as well as usual. A physician was called and he was taken home about 10 o'clock, going into a collapse and passed away shortly after noon.

Mr. Abbott was a grandson of Jeremiah Abbott, who with his brother, Amos Abbott, built a woolen mill in Dexter in 1820.

The business has always been under the firm name of Amos Abbott & Co. always in the same family. Arthur Abbott was the son of Job Abbott and Amanda Abbott. He was born in Dexter, attended the public schools and graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at the age of 20. Returning to Dexter to take up the business of his father and grandfather his death came after 52 years' connection with the firm.

The plant gradually grew to large capacity and modern equipment, employed Dexter people, generation after generation, and rarely had labor troubles.

Arthur Abbott, like his forbears, always kept in close and sympathetic touch with his employes, many in distress or need not only in his employ but in the community were relieved by his benevolence, although such was not generally known. No cause for community betterment ever lacked his support.

He kept closely in touch with civic matters and his counsel was regarded as of the highest value. He was president of the Dexter Loan and Building Association, member of Bedivere lodge, Knights of Pythias, one of the oldest members of the Dexter Club, member of the First Universalist church and for some time clerk of its board of trustees.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Flora Parkman Abbott; his son, Jere Abbott, director of the Art Museum of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., and his sister, Mrs. Nathan C. Bucknam, of Dexter.

The funeral will be held at the First Universalist church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Stanley Gates Spear, a former pastor of the church, now of Beverly, Mass., and William J. Metz, the present pastor will officiate. [Eastern Gazette 2-1-1934 p1]

Funeral of A. P. Abbott

All places of business in Dexter were closed Friday afternoon from three to four o'clock to pay tribute to the memory of the late Arthur P. Abbott. The memorial service held during that hour at the First Universalist church was largely attended, nearly every available seat in the large auditorium being taken. Probably never before in Dexter has such a beautiful display of flowers expressed the esteem in which a departed one is held and the deep sympathy extended to the relatives by friends near and far.

The service was simple, with no music. Scripture was read and prayer offered by the pastor of the church Rev. William J. Metz. Comforting gems of literature and well chosen personal remarks were made by one who has for 25 years been a friend of Mr. Abbott, Rev. Stanley Gates Spear of Beverly, Mass., a former pastor of the local church.

The active bearers at the service were Herbert M. Gates, Harry E. Hale, Fred O. Herrick, Harold C. Mountain and Peter S. Plouff, all of Dexter and Farley Hyde of Lynn, Mass.

The remains were placed in the receiving tomb at Mt. Pleasant cemetery to await burial there in the spring.

During twenty-six consecutive winters while her husband was absent in Florida, she cared faithfully to every interest of the home and has continued to take a large part of the care since his return.

She was a kind and affectionate wife and her departure leaves her husband in deepest sorrow. She also leaves two brothers and many acquaintances and friends who mourn their loss.

For five weeks previous to her death she was a great sufferer, but through all was remarkably patient and seemed to fully appreciate all that was done for her relief. We would commend the husband so sorely bereft to the kindly sympathy of all our people.

William graduated from the University of New Brunswick. Birth recorded in Upton VR v360 p386, year 1885 confirmed. Birth record has parents as William Robertson b ME & Alice F Roberts b Dexter ME (sic; she probably said her married name Robertson, then changed it, but the clerk had already started writing it. Alice Florilla Safford WAS b Dexter.). William m2 Helen Elwell (Mrs Cousens) in Gardiner ME 15 June 1940. She m3) Howard Kelley (10 Jan 1891 - April 1983 Warwick RI). Helen and Howard would come to East Rochester to visit the Rhoades family occasionally.

William Lewis Robertson's d/c says he resided at 3 Cobbosee Ave; his wife Helen Cousens was 49; he was b West Upton Mass, and he was District Supt CMP Co. His father was a sea captain b NB and mother Alice Safford b NB [sic]. He died of Pulmonary thrombosis, and prostate cancer. His prostate cancer metastasized to his ribs (which broke when he tried to get out of the car) and spine.

Memories from Muriel: How did he meet Helen and where did the big house on the hill (133 Cobbosee Ave) come from? Helen might have been one of the housekeepers. They lived on Central St/Water St in Gardiner, house belonged to Helen, it was a Cousens' house. She worked in a factory office on Water St. Helen's mother was nice, they called her Nana. Muriel and Martha mowed the big steep lawn by hand. William remodeled the house. It burned ca 2010 and was rebuilt.

Carole Hanson Guentert writes in her book Hansons of York Maine, p84-92: "Will introduced an unpopular step-mother into the Robertson girls' lives when he remarried a few years later. I remember Grandfather Robertson as a tall friendly man (Mom's childhood friend Edith Sanborn described him as "impressive"), who brought 3-foot tall dolls to Peggy and me for Christmas and on our birthdays. He was married to Helen Cousens by that time, and I spent time at their house on the hill in Gardiner Maine (Cobbosee Stream) in the summertime, though my mother never liked her step-mother, and we weren't allowed to either. My mother could really hold a grudge about that, but it may have been well-deserved.

Mom would tell of the huge strawberry shortcakes that her Dad would serve up in soup bowls, because he didn't want his girls to suffer deprivation like he did when he was a boy. When his father remarried, his step-mother cut him off from any financial help for college, so he got a loan from his employer, Ganong's Candy factory in St Stephen NB. Some letters from William are also reproduced in the book.

I would not have the slightest idea that he cared for me. I feel sure that he does love me." On Jan 25, 1914, Edith entered "I had my ring. It was put on with a kiss. I think it's a beauty. I do love him." She never entered their wedding date, Nov 11, 1914 in this book."

The Eastern Gazette 11-7-1907, p.5

George Bradbury True, a well-known citizen of Dexter, was found dead in his room last Friday noon. Mr. True appeared to be in usual health Thursday. He ate dinner and supper with more than usual relish, and retired at an early hour. His failure to appear Friday morning caused the family no uneasiness, since he often, after a wakeful night, slept during the forenoon. At noon, when his granddaughter called him, he made no response. A few moments later Mrs. True entered his room and found that he had passed away. Dr. Thatcher was at once given word and decided that he had died of heart disease, and that death had occurred during the night.

Mr. True was born in Sangerville, Me., Nov. 17, 1839, the only son of Bradbury and Mary Safford True. Mrs. Albion K. Jackson of Monson, Me., one of his three sisters, survives him Mr. True was married Feb. 21, 1867, to Mrs. Caroline Maxim Bailey. Idella May, wife of Nathan Daggett of Dexter, is Mr. and Mrs. True's only child. Mr. True had resided in Dexter more than forty years. At one time he was in the grocery business here. Subsequently he was employed in several different markets. He also traveled for a time as salesman for a wholesale firm in South Paris.

He enlisted in the first year of the Civil war, served several months, and was then honorably discharged on account of serious disability resulting from severe sickness. Though his term of service as a soldier was brief, it made a permanent impression upon him. To the last he maintained intense interest in everything pertaining to the war and the Grand Army of the Republic.

Mr. True was for many years a member of the Penobscot lodge Free and Accepted Masons.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. A. Corey, were held at his late residence Sunday, at 12,30 p.m. Membrs of the H. F. Safford post, G. A. R., were present, Penobscot lodge F. & A. M., attended in a body concluding the funeral obsequies with the dignified and impressive service of their order.

Thus has passed from our midst, at the age of 68 years, a man of kindly heart and generous impulse.

211. Roland Eaton RHOADES (*Nancy Bruce REYNOLDS*⁸, *Parmenas*⁷, *Thomas*⁶, *Thomas*⁵, *Nathaniel*⁴, *Nathaniel*³, *Nathaniel (Capt)*², *Robert*¹) was born 2 Jun 1867 in Winslow, Kennebec, ME and died 2 Jun 1913 in Pittsfield, Somerset, ME.

Transcript of his obituary in The Pittsfield Advertiser, June 5 1913 . "The death of Roland E Rhoades occurred at 6:15 A.M. Monday at his home on North Main street after an illness of about a week. Mr Rhoades, who was a jeweler, was well known in this section of the state, having been in business at various times in Pittsfield. He was considered something of a genius, and had invented several articles, some of them having been sold for a good sum. He leaves a wife, a small son, a daughter by a former marriage, and one brother, John Rhoades of this town. His age was 45 years. Funeral services were held at his home at 10 o'clock Wednesday forenoon, Rev F.S. Walker officiating. Interment was made at the village cemetery."

Roland and son Ivan are both buried in Pittsfield Village Cemetery, but it appears there is no stone and no record and that the cemetery buried someone else on top of him. Daughter Irma in Pittsfield tried resolving the question with no luck in the 1950s. Rev Frederick S Walker was a Universalist minister, at Pittsfield Universalist 1908-1915, and later at Waterville 1925-1928. Roland and his family worked in textile shops in his early years. Roland's first patent for which we find a record was filed Jan 9 1891 when Roland was age 24 and granted Jan 26 1892. It was for an improvement upon the loom.

Roland Eaton Rhoades was named after Roland L Eaton (1835-1870), son of the Rhoades family's good friends and cousins by marriage, Joseph Eaton (1800-1865) and Mary A (1809-1868). The Eatons are all in Fort Hill Cemetery in Winslow.

April 1910 Belfast Ward 2 census lists Roland E Rhodes 41 div rents at 71 1/2 High St and is a jeweler, repair work, working on own account. Not found 1900.

Roland is listed in The Maine State Directory & Gazetteer 1893, p 282, and 1894 p 333, and 1895 p311 on Main St in Pittsfield, under Jewelry, Watches, etc. 1898 Worcester MA p411 has a Roland E Rhoades, loomsetter, 123 Tainter, bds. 32 Grand. 1907 Worcester p592 has a Roland E Rhoades, rem'd from city.

Orin Soule was the son of Rufus, a Mayflower descendant. L Mae Rhoades sued Roland E Rhoades for divorce in Kennebec Co court, for desertion, vol X-p23, granted 29 Sept 1910. Divorce record says they were married 8 Jan 1900, but m/c says 8 June 1902 in Newport. Found no further mar or death rec for Lillie, under any last name. The Soule family is buried in Spring Hill Cem in Palmyra, with Lillian's name on the monument with no death date. Orin L 1846-1920; Eliza J 1844-1925.

Family legend, as told by his wife Grace who lived until 1966, says that Roland was friends with Thomas Alva Edison, and that's why his son's middle name is Edison. Roland was a jeweler who worked on clocks. Grace Flagg was a schoolgirl, 27 years younger than him, who walked home past his jeweler's shop in Belfast. They fell in love despite the age difference and got married. Grace also said that he was an alcoholic (also proven in the divorce record of his first wife), and had blinding migraine headaches. A family story passed down is that she being still a girl and not knowing better, as a tidy person, she emptied the little bit of rat poison left over into an old aspirin bottle to make more room. During his headaches, Roland would blindly reach into the medicine cabinet and feel around for the aspirin bottle and mistakenly took the rat poison which killed him. Grace remarried three more times.

Obituary for Harriet E. Rhoades From: Rensselaer Republican, Thursday, August 9, 1883 (page 4) A Sad Death Mrs. Harriet E. Rhoades, wife of Mr. M. D. Rhoades died at her residence on Front street, in Rensselaer, on Monday morning, August 6th, 1883. The cause of her death was typhoid fever, from which she had been sick for a period of eighteen days. Mrs. Rhoades maiden name was Hudson. Her marriage to Marshall D. Rhoades took place October 19th, 1865. Her death is peculiarly sad in that a family of four young children, the youngest of whom is but three years old, suffer the great calamity of losing, in their tender years, the priceless blessing of a devoted mother's care.
