

SAFFORD Family of Dexter, Maine

by Roland Rhoades May 2018 Update. seeker@maine.rr.com 207-892-0923 10 Blackberry Lane, Gorham ME 04038 www.RolandRhoades.com I have much more to add from vital records and correspondence, more later. I keep expanding this as I prepare my Allerton Mayflower application (descendants of #19). This is IN PROGRESS; please forward your additions to me for the next update. Thanks. 10 generations here. Contact Roland for later generations.

First Generation

1. Thomas SAFFORD was born in , Suffolk, England and died 20 Feb 1666/67 in Ipswich, Essex, MA.

Saffords in America by Edward Stanley Safford. But even better, more thorough, and easier to find, is Walter Goodwin Davis' MA & ME Families, Safford family in Phebe Tilton section. I used the 1996 reprint with all the families together alphabetically, v3 p242-259.

Thomas married Elizabeth in , Suffolk, England. Elizabeth was born in , , England and died 4 Mar 1670/71.

Children from this marriage were:

- 2 F i. Mary SAFFORD was born about 1628 in , Suffolk, England.
Mary married Daniel KILHAM in Oct 1648.
- + 3 M ii. John SAFFORD was born in 1631 in , Suffolk, England and died before Jun 1708 in Ipswich, Essex, MA.
- 4 M iii. Joseph SAFFORD was born in 1633 in , Suffolk, England and died 29 Aug 1701 in Ipswich, Essex, MA.

My Nov 4 2012 letter to John Clark in New Zealand finding his Safford line: Documentation needed, but attached is p436 from History of Hope Maine (formerly part of Camden ME), by Anna Simpson Hardy 1990, which has part of Hope Grove Cem there.

Page 10 of the book which I should have copied, but only transcribed says: "Reuben Safford of Sharon NH, purchased lots 47 & 48 and enough of lot 57 to make up 300 acres. Reuben's father, Benjamin, had moved from Ipswich MA to New Ipswich NH before 1754. Reuben was born in 1767, the youngest of 6 children." Using this info and some Ancestry trees, the lineage seems to be:

Jane Safford 1798-1884 md Charleville Kendall

Reuben Safford 1767-1853 & Sarah Philbrick 1767-1854

Benjamin Safford 1718-1810 & Prudence Melvin 1718-1784 [Ancestry tree pushes max of childbearing years, her b-date may be wrong] The History of New Ipswich, N.H. 1735-1914, Charles Henry Chandler, page 590

Samuel Safford 1678-? & Elizabeth

Joseph Safford 1633-1701 & Mary Baker [I descend from his brother John]

Thomas Safford & Elizabeth

Joseph married Mary BAKER 6 Mar 1659/60 in Ipswich, Essex, MA.

- 5 F iv. Abigail SAFFORD.
- 6 F v. Elizabeth SAFFORD died 7 Oct 1672 in Wenham, Essex, MA. She had no known marriage and no known children.

Second Generation (Children)

3. John SAFFORD (*Thomas*¹) was born in 1631 in , Suffolk, England and died before Jun 1708 in Ipswich, Essex, MA.

Some info from "The Saffords in America" compiled by Edward Stanley Safford, Hollywood CA 1921 [NEHGS mss]. "In 1647, aged 14 years, John was listed as a blacksmith, in which trade he continued. On Jan 29, 1661, he bought land from Anthony Potter, which remained in possession of the Safford family for about 100 years. On Feb 18, 1678, a "List of ye Names of those persons yt have right of Comonage according to Law and order of this Town" included Joseph and John Safford."

John married Sarah LOWE, daughter of Thomas LOW. Sarah was born about 1637 and died after Jun 1708.

52. Simeon SAFFORD (John⁵, John⁴, Thomas³, John², Thomas¹) was born 29 Jul 1776 in Washington, Cheshire, NH and died 13 Sep 1845 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

History of Washington NH p591 (free online at archive.org) says Simeon was a mason by trade; lists 7 ch. Simeon was named after his maternal grandfather Farnsworth. Simeon Safford descends from Mayflower passenger Isaac Allerton (Remember Allerton2 Abigail Maverick3 Martha Ward4 Martha Tuttle5 Martha Haskell6 John Safford7 Simeon Safford8). Further documentation as it is found will be below, especially looking at the family as a whole corroborating the families' moves from Harvard to Washington to Dexter, esp:

MA & ME Families in the Ancestry of Walter Goodwin Davis, Phoebe Tilton section, or the 1996 NEHGS alphabetical edition v3 p254-255 details the entire family with both Simeon and his brother John moving to Dexter. Simeon and Sally are buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Dexter, he being buried Sept 20.

Dexter VR Book I says Simeon Safford b 29 July 1773 and Sally b 8 Oct 1775. Saffords in America says he was born 29 July 1777. History of Washington and Walter Goodwin Davis says born 29 July 1776.

"Maine Place Names & the Peopling of its Towns", Penobscot County edition, by Ava Harriet Chadbourne 1957, in the chapter on Dexter p22-23 says: "The township of Dexter was surveyed in 1772, but remained unsettled until the turn of the century..." "Ebenezer Small had moved from Alton NH to Athens in 1799 and in the following year had arrived at the present Dexter. In the spring of 1801 he brought his wife in on a hand-sled from Harmony." Simeon's wife Sarah Rogers came from Alton NH per her son Hiram's d/c, and his siblings. "In 1803 Seba French of Washington NH came. During the years 1803-1805, Samuel Copeland, Simeon and John Stafford [sic Safford], Hugh Maxwell, and the Shepleys and Smiths moved from Washington, New Hampshire, to Elkinston, as the plantation was then called." "About 1807, immigration increased with such rapidity that a road was laid out from Garland and a schoolhouse was built..."

Early deeds for Simeon and his brother John show that they owned adjoining lots 10 & 11 on the ridge overlooking the town, which today is prime property, as it probably was then. Deeds also mentioned that the lots were surveyed for the town by Simeon Safford.

See also the Eastern Gazette series of stories on Dexter's first settlers and their descendants.

Simeon married Sarah "Sally" ROGERS, daughter of ROGERS, about 1803. Sarah was born 8 Oct 1775 in Alton, Strafford, NH and died 27 Aug 1861 in Corinna, Penobscot, ME.

56. Ward STAFFORD (*John*⁵, *John*⁴, *Thomas*³, *John*², *Thomas*¹) was born 6 Apr 1788 in Washington, Cheshire, NH and died 26 Mar 1851 in Bloomfield, Essex, NJ.

Changed his name to Stafford. Family listed in History of Washington NH p592-594: Ward prepared for college at Phillips Academy, at Andover, Mass., and entered the sophomore class at Yale College in 1809, where he graduated Sept. 9, 1812. He studied theology at Yale, and was licensed to preach in 1815. He began his ministerial labors in the city of New York, where he labored chiefly as a missionary for the Female Missionary Society for the poor of New York, and for the New York Marine Missionary Society. He organized the Marine Bible Society of New York, in 1817, and it was through his efforts that the Mariners' Church was built in that city, in 1820.

In 1820 he became agent of the American Bible Society, his work being confined to the Middle and some of the Southern states. In 1822 he became pastor of the Bowery Church in New York City, where he remained until 1828. He then removed to New Jersey, and in 1830 became pastor of a church in Youngstown, Ohio. In 1837 feeble health compelled his resignation, and he returned to the East, and after preaching for a short time at West Stockbridge, Mass., he became principal of a ladies' seminary at Pittsfield, Mass. He was afterward engaged in teaching in Hudson and Brooklyn, NY. In 1844 he removed to Newark, NJ, and thence to Bloomfield, in the same state, in 1845. He died in Bloomfield, Mar. 26, 1851. He was married to Hannah Ward of Newark, NJ, Mar. 23, 1819. She died at Youngstown, Ohio, Dec. 13, 1836. His second wife was Mary L. Burnham of Derry, NH, whom he married Oct. 1, 1841. She died in Brooklyn, NY, Sept. 29, 1843. [He thought] The name of the Safford family was originally Stafford, and at the age of twenty-one, Ward Safford caused the t to be inserted, and his name was afterward written Stafford.

The Eastern Gazette 1-1-1914, p.5

The passing away of Miss Hannah Abbott, one of the oldest ladies in Dexter and a life-long resident of the town, occurred on Friday evening at her home on Church street, after a long illness. Her health has been gradually failing for the past six months and her passing away was not unexpected. Miss Abbott was born in Dexter, 84 years ago and was the daughter of Jeremiah and Lucy Abbott. Miss Abbott was a member of the First Universalist church and took an active part in its departments until failing health compelled her to relinquish her many activities. Beloved by many, she was admired for her sterling characteristics. The funeral services were held at her late home Monday afternoon. The interment took place in the family lot in Elmwood cemetery.

The Dexter Gazette 12-1888

Died in Dexter, Dec. 2nd Mrs. Rozilla Safford (widow of the late Calvin Safford) aged 81 years 2 months and 20 days.

SAFFORD Family of Dexter, Maine

Mrs. Safford has been a member of the Dexter Universalist church from its organization, and in all of her long and checkered life journey has daily been governed by the promptings of her sanctifying and consoling faith. As an affectionate and faithful wife, a tender and loving mother, a genial and obliging neighbor and friend, she won the respect and esteem of all who knew her. She has been called to part with three beloved children, (a daughter and two sons) an affectionate and dear companion and many other cherished friends; but she believed and felt that they had gone up to the Father's house and in God's own good time she would go up to join them, never more to be separated, and in this comforting assurance, when she was called, she was resigned and willing to depart.

Rozilla's mother is a descendant of immigrant Edward & Christian Sprague: The Sprague Project.

Children from this marriage were:

- 170 F i. Rozilla SAFFORD was born 11 Oct 1834 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME and died 15 Oct 1857 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

The Eastern Gazette 2-28-1907, p.5 DOD 1907-02-22 Dexter: Mrs. Ruby Jumper Safford who passed away on Friday afternoon at her home on Free St. was born in Dexter March 28, 1817, the third child of Edmund and Sally Jumper. [D/C adds of apoplexy] She was one of a family of ten children, only one of whom, the eldest, Mrs. Abigail D. Sturtevant of this town, is living. She was married to Hiram Safford who passed away about ten years ago. Her long life was spent in this vicinity and most of it in this town. She had ten children, four of whom are living: Mrs. Helen Dove of Upton, Mass., Mrs. Ruby Campbell of this town, with whom she lived, Mrs. Sarah Bellows of Worcester, Mass., and Charley Safford of Westbrook. There are twenty grandchildren and two great-grand-children. Mrs. Safford was a woman of exceptionally fine qualities and drew about her a large circle of devoted personal friends. She was quiet and unassuming in manner, dearly beloved by those who knew her best. Her mind was clear to the last and she carried her weight of years as a crown. Tenderly cared for by her daughter, her last days were full of brightness and peace. She trusted in her Saviour, and was ready for the Master's call. Funeral services were held from the home Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. Stanley Gates Spear officiating. Musical selections were rendered by Mrs. S. L. Small and Mrs. W. H. Carr. The bearers were Samuel Eldridge, Charles Favor, E. H. Jones and A. W. Kimball. There were many beautiful floral offerings, emblematic of the grace and beauty of the life that had gone. The aged sister, the children and many relatives have the sympathy of all in their loss.

Mrs. Sarah M., wife of Cyrus Foss, who has been critically ill for some time, died at her home on Pleasant street last Sunday morning. She suffered from a shock Jan. 21 that caused partial paralysis and although there was improvement at first in her condition it was not such as to encourage hopes for her recovery. Her only child, Mrs. T. J. Springall of Malden, Mass., came here at once and cared for her mother to the last. Mrs. Foss was a daughter of Amos Abbott and sister of George A. Abbott, who gave our beautiful library. She also took great interest in the building and presented the valuable painting of Lincoln which adorns its walls. About two months ago the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Foss was celebrated by the relatives and friends in a quiet way and was a very pleasant event. She leaves a husband, daughter and one sister, Mrs. Emily Springall. Mrs. Foss was 78 years old last October. The funeral was held at her late home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Gould officiating.

Sarah married Cyrus FOSS in 1852. Cyrus was born 17 Oct 1823 in Alfred, York, ME and died 6 Mar 1910 in Malden, Middlesex, MA.

The Eastern Gazette 3-10-1910, p.5 Death of Cyrus Foss

The remains of Cyrus Foss, whose death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. J. Springall in Malden, arrived here on the three o'clock train Monday afternoon and were taken to the Universalist church, where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. William H. Gould of the church of the Messiah, Portland, officiating. The bearers were Messrs. W. E. Brewster, Dana Crockett, Charles R. Favor and Charles M. Sawyer.

Mr. Foss, who died Sunday, had for many years been one of Dexter's prominent business men. He was born in Alfred, Oct. 17, 1823, and his parents shortly afterward moved to Benton Falls. He was educated in the public schools, including a term in the High school, and later acquired the trade of a carpenter. He came to Dexter in 1842 and was employed at his trade until 1846, when he became a member of the firm of G. Jewett & Co., foundrymen, and later in company with Ansel Libby established a tinsmithing and kitchen furnishing business which continued until 1887 when Dana Crockett became a partner. In 1890 Mr. Foss relinquished his interest in the business and since he had led a retired life.

He always took an active interest in town affairs. He served as a member of the board of selectmen two years and as town treasurer one term. In 1872-73 he was a member of the legislature from this class. He was one of the promoters of the Dexter and Newport railroad and for a number of years he was a director in the company. He later became interested in the extension to Dover. He was a director of the First National bank 1877 and for several years president of the institution, being succeeded by William E. Brewster, the present head of the institution.

In 1852 he was married to Miss Sarah M., daughter of Amos Abbott of this town. The only surviving child is Mrs. Springall of Malden, with whom the deceased has made his home winters for several years. Mr. Foss was largely interested in local real estate. He was a man highly respected, and his death is a matter of universal regret.

The child from this marriage was:

- 199 F i. Alice Estelle FOSS was born 19 May 1854 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME and died 15 Apr 1911 in Malden, Middlesex, MA.

Accidental Death of Dr. T. J. Springall

News was received here by wire Thursday evening of the sudden death in Malden, Mass., of Dr. T. J. Springall, for many years a summer resident of Waldheim on the shore of Lake Wassookeag in this town. Dr. Springall was run down by an automobile in Malden Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, was taken to his home where he died at 8 o'clock, never regaining consciousness. He is a cousin of Amos, John, Joseph and Lizzie Springall of Dexter and has many friends here who mourn his death. He was always the life of Waldheim and will be sadly missed there during the coming summer.

Dr. Springall is survived by two sons, Cyrus Springall of Malden, with whom he made his home since the death of his wife, Alice Foss Springall, George Springall of Malden, and one daughter, Mrs. Sarah Yoeman, of Lawrence, Mass. Funeral services were held Sunday and Amos Springall, John Springall and Arthur P. Abbott of this town went to Malden Saturday to attend the services.

The following from the Malden News is a sketch of his life:

Dr. Springall was a native of England and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Springall. His father was a naval officer. Dr. Springall came to America at 14 and was with his uncle George Springall, in the leather business for some years. Later he decided to enter dentistry and worked his way through the Boston Dental school now Tufts college, by working nights at the Boston Rubber Shoe plant here. After graduating he was with Dr. Fowler, a Boston dentist, in partnership for two years, and, returning to Malden, opened offices in the apartments over Hunt's pharmacy in City Hall square. When Odd Fellows' block was erected he took quarters there and practiced until the World War, when he retired.

Dr. Springall was married to Miss Alice Foss of Dexter, Me., who died in 1910. He had a summer place at Dexter. He was a member of Middlesex lodge of Odd Fellows, Mt. Vernon lodge of Masons, Mizpah lodge of Workmen, and was a deacon and trustee of the First Universalist church. He is also survived by two brothers, Robert, of Anerly England, and another brother in South Africa.

144. Emily Jane ABBOTT (*Mehitable SAFFORD*⁷, *John Jr (Lt)*⁶, *John*⁵, *John*⁴, *Thomas*³, *John*², *Thomas*¹) was born 1 Jun 1827 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME and died 8 Sep 1905 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

Mrs. Emily J. Springall.

The death of this esteemed and beloved woman deserves more than mere passing notice, for she was a worthy representative of the men and women who have made the homelife of Dexter healthful, strong and attractive. The second child of Amos Abbott and Mehitable Safford, she was born in Dexter, June 1, 1827. Her father came to Dexter when a young man and with his brother, Jeremiah, established the woolen industry of the Amos Abbott Company. Her mother's family was the third family to settle in town. In 1855 Miss Abbott was married to John B. Springall, a young English physician. For three years they made their home in the neighboring town of Sangerville where the first child, Amos, was born. Then they came to Dexter where Dr. Springall soon established a promising business. But the joy of the growing home was saddened by the death of the husband in 1860, leaving Mrs. Springall with the care of three small children, the youngest of whom, Lizzie, was born after her father's death. Bravely the young mother accepted the great responsibility given her, and wisely and beautifully fulfilled her sacred trust, making a cheerful, happy home, surrounding the children with the self-sacrificing affection and gentle guidance of Christian motherhood. However, the service of this Christian woman was not confined to the home circle, but through the years many a sorrowing and troubled neighbor was comforted and cheered by the sympathizing word or helpful act of this true friend who had herself been through the deep waters. To all those who had the privilege of knowing her, Mrs. Springall lived a brave, faithful, useful life, characterized by a living faith, a constant hopefulness, a loyal affection. She was one of the most useful and devoted members of the Universalist church, helped and helping in all the Christian offices of religion. Busy thoughtful of others to the last she fell asleep in the Lord in the early morning hour of Saturday, Sept. 9.

The three children, Amos A., John W., and Lizzie S., are all esteemed citizens of Dexter.

The funeral services were held at the home, in the quiet hour of the Sabbath afternoon, Sept. 10, conducted by the pastor of her church.

AMOS ABBOTT SPRINGALL

The entire community was saddened Wednesday morning when learning of the death Tuesday night at 11.30 o'clock of Amos A. Springall of this town, one of Dexter's most prominent business men and treasurer of the Dexter Loan & Building Association since its inception 42 years ago.

Mr. Springall was stricken about ten days ago with heart trouble and although at times hopes were held for his recovery he grew steadily worse on Tuesday and passed away at 11.30 P. M.

He was, born in Dexter 74 years ago the son of Dr. John and Emily Abbott Springall. His education was received here with the exception of a pharmaceutic course received elsewhere, his entire life had been passed in Dexter, where he had always maintained a great interest in the municipal affairs of the town. He was a deeply interested member of the First Universalist parish, where he was a regular church attendant, having for many years served as Sunday school librarian, and until last year was church treasurer for many years and at the time of his death a member of the board of trustees.

A man of highest integrity, his opinion was sought by many in various affairs. He was a director of the local branch of the Merrill Trust Co., and had been for several years.

Mr. Springall was a member of Bedivere Lodge, K. of P., and the Men's Club of the First Universalist church.

Mr. Springall's first business enterprise was in the drug business, conducting a drug store in the old Mercantile Block for over 15 years, it being in his office that the Dexter Loan & Building Association was born and functioned during its early life. Later he sold his drug business to Davis & Wright. He has served Dexter in many public capacities, as tax collector for several years and as a very efficient selectman for several terms. Since the erection of the Abbott Memorial Library, Mr. Springall has served continuously as a member of the board of trustees.

In whatever he undertook, one could feel that it would be work well accomplished as Mr. Springall never did anything but what he put his very best into the undertaking. Truly in this man Dexter loses one of the finest of citizens.

Mr. Springall is survived by one sister, Miss Lizzie Springall, and by one brother, John W. Springall, of this town. Mrs. Springall passed away several years ago and her sister, Miss Annie Dustin has made her home with Mr. Springall since that time. To the family the deep sympathy of the entire community is extended.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 standard time, at the Universalist church.

The Eastern Gazette 6-26-1930, p.5

Amos Abbott Springall was born in Sangerville, Maine, November 17, 1856. His father was Dr. John B. Springall, and at another time under in 1825, and died in Dexter in 1860, who came to the United States when a young man and was a graduate of Harvard Medical College. He was a practicing physician all the rest of his life. Dr. Joseph Springall, his older brother was settled in Garland, Maine and Dr. John settled in Sangerville, later moving to Dexter. For a few years he was engaged in the drug business in Dexter.

Mr. Springall's mother, Emily Jane daughter of Amos Abbott and Mehitable (Safford) Abbott was born in Dexter in 1927 and died there in 1905.

After her husband's death Mrs. Springall continued to hold an interest in the drug store at one time under the firm name of Barron and Springall, and at another time under the name of Springall & Clough.

At an early age Amos Springall began serving as clerk in the drug store. About 1876 he became part owner and about twenty years later was sole owner of the business. In 1906 he sold out to Davis and Wright.

Mr. Springall was active in the organization of the Dexter Loan & Building Association in 1886 and became its first secretary, serving to the end of his life. In 1912 he became treasurer of the Association, which position he held at the time of his death.

About 1906 he entered the insurance business and at the time of his death he had built up a large volume of business in this line.

He served as chairman of the board of selectmen of Dexter one year, and at one time was treasurer of the town and collector of taxes. He was interested in all projects for the betterment of the town. He was the first librarian of the Town Library and served as its treasurer for a good many years. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Royal Arcanum. A charter member of the Dexter Club. He was a Universalist, June 9, 1885 he married Carrie Justin, who died in 1925.

WAS LIBRARIAN 45 YEARS

Miss Lizzie S. Springall Passes After Long Service For the Town

Miss Lizzie S. Springall, librarian of the Abbott Memorial library in this town for 45 years, passed away last Friday evening at the age of 74 years.

She was a life-long resident of Dexter, the daughter of the late Dr. John D. and Emily Abbott Springall. She first entered library work when just out of high school, acting as assistant to her brother, the late Amos A. Springall when the library was in the rear of the Springall drug store. When her uncle, the late Geo. A. Abbott, gave to the town the present library building she became its first librarian. In 1926 she retired because of ill health and was made honorary librarian.

She has been an active and devoted member of the First Universalist church and teacher in the Sunday school for many years, also a member of Wassookeag chapter, O. E. S.

The only near relatives are a sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Springall, with whom she has lived for the past year, and a cousin, Joseph K. Springall of this town. More distant cousins live in Maiden, Mass.

Funeral services were held from the home on Church street Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. William J. Metz of the Universalist church officiating. The bearers were Donald Champion, Arthur Page, Roy Cheney and Elwin Crosby. Those attending the services from out of town were Cyrus Springall of Malden, Mass.; Mrs. Mary Hatch Howard of Bangor; Mrs. Robert Gill and Miss Pauline Gill of Brockville, Ontario. The service was attended by many friends of the deceased and the floral offerings were beautifully expressive of the love and esteem in which Miss Springall was held in the community. The interment will be in the family lot in Elmwood cemetery.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

SAFFORD Family of Dexter, Maine

Our people were much surprised and grieved last Saturday evening to learn that Job Abbott of the Amos Abbot Co. had passed away. Some two years ago Mr. Abbott had a shock from which he recovered and had enjoyed his usual health up to the afternoon of his death. He was about town Saturday forenoon, apparently as well as usual while at the dinner table he complained of pain in his head which later passed to his chest. A physician was summoned and he rallied from the trouble and was not thought to be in immediate danger until about nine o'clock in the evening when those in attendance heard him cough while they were preparing some medicine and hurrying to his side found he had expired. His death was due to another shock. While of course it was realized there was danger yet his sudden death was entirely unexpected and came as a great blow to his family. But very few about town knew of his sickness and the news of his death was the first intimation they had that he was not in his usual health. The funeral was held at the house on Church street Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. H. Gould officiating. The mill and places of business in town were closed during the afternoon out of regard for the deceased. The bearers were C. W. Curtis, C. M. Sawyer, Dana Crockett, C. P. McCrillis, Samuel Eldridge, H. S. Dole. The burial was in Elmwood cemetery.

Job Abbott was born in this town Dec. 15, 1827, and was the son of Jeremiah Abbott. He was educated in the common schools and Westbrook Academy from which he graduated. On returning to town he worked in the woolen mills for a time and later became connected with the firm of Amos Abbott & Co. which comprised his father and Amos Abbott. Later he and George A. Abbott entered the firm. After the death of George A. Abbott the business was incorporated as the Amos Abbott Co. and Job Abbott has since remained as head of the business and its President, although for some years past he had given up active work in the office and had taken more interest in farming. He owned two farms, one located on the west side of Grove street and the other on the Dover road. Mr. J. C. Bailey has been his farm superintendent for a good many years and Mr. Abbott has heartily enjoyed this branch of his business.

Mr. Abbott was a member of the Universalist church in this village and was devoted to its interests. As a citizen he was public spirited and was ever found advocating good morals and a high standard of life. As a friend he was honored by all and his death will be sincerely mourned.

Mr. Abbott married Miss Amanda Field, who with two children, Arthur P. and Miss Helen C. Abbott, survive him. They have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in their affliction.

Job married Amanda L FIELD, daughter of Robert FIELD, 15 Dec 1854 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME. Amanda was born 29 Apr 1838 in Carmel, Penobscot, ME and died 13 Dec 1924 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

The Eastern Gazette 12-18-1924, p.5

The death of Mrs. Amanda Field Abbott, widow of the late Job Abbott of this town, occurred at her home on Church street Saturday, after a long period of failing health, at the age of 86 years.

The deceased was born in Carmel, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field of that town. At the age of 16 years she came to Dexter as the bride of the late Job Abbott, the pioneer woolen manufacturer of this town, whose death occurred in 1903.

Mrs. Abbott was a faithful member of the First Universalist church of this town and has been interested in philanthropic and charitable work. She was also a generous and interested member of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Abbott is survived by one son, Arthur P. Abbott, of this town and by a daughter, Mrs. Helen Abbott Bucknam, who has most tenderly cared for her mother in the home which they occupied together.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home on Church street, Rev. Stanley Gates Spear, pastor of the First Universalist church of Roxbury, Mass., and a former pastor of the local church officiating, assisted by Rev. Wm. Garner, pastor of the First Universalist church of Dexter. The bearers were Messrs. Charles G. Towle, Fred W. Barker, Bert Bailey and Thomas A. Smart. The services were attended by many friends and neighbors and there was a profusion of floral offerings, bearing silent testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

His passport is made out to Arthur B Safford that was 27 years old in 1864. It is signed by William Seward, so I will enjoy having it in my collection. But I would love to know why he went to Spain. Any ideas? - Stanley Campbell 815-964-7111

Arthur married Hannah A FIFIELD, daughter of John M FIFIELD. Hannah was born in 1834 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME and died 11 May 1890 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

Mrs. Hannah A. Fifield, wife of Arthur B. Safford, died at her home in Dexter, May 11, aged fifty-six years. Mrs. Safford was born in Dexter and has passed her days here, and is well-known by our citizens as a woman of more than ordinary ability. During twenty-six consecutive winters while her husband was absent in Florida, she cared faithfully to every interest of the home and has continued to take a large part of the care since his return.

She was a kind and affectionate wife and her departure leaves her husband in deepest sorrow. She also leaves two brothers and many acquaintances and friends who mourn their loss.

For five weeks previous to her death she was a great sufferer, but through all was remarkably patient and seemed to fully appreciate all that was done for her relief. We would commend the husband so sorely bereft to the kindly sympathy of all our people.

The Eastern Gazette 11-7-1907, p.5

George Bradbury True, a well-known citizen of Dexter, was found dead in his room last Friday noon. Mr. True appeared to be in usual health Thursday. He ate dinner and supper with more than usual relish, and retired at an early hour. His failure to appear Friday morning caused the family no uneasiness, since he often, after a wakeful night, slept during the forenoon. At noon, when his granddaughter called him, he made no response. A few moments later Mrs. True entered his room and found that he had passed away. Dr. Thatcher was at once given word and decided that he had died of heart disease, and that death had occurred during the night.

Mr. True was born in Sangerville, Me., Nov. 17, 1839, the only son of Bradbury and Mary Safford True. Mrs. Albion K. Jackson of Monson, Me., one of his three sisters, survives him Mr. True was married Feb. 21, 1867, to Mrs. Caroline Maxim Bailey. Idella May, wife of Nathan Daggett of Dexter, is Mr. and Mrs. True's only child. Mr. True had resided in Dexter more than forty years. At one time he was in the grocery business here. Subsequently he was employed in several different markets. He also traveled for a time as salesman for a wholesale firm in South Paris.

He enlisted in the first year of the Civil war, served several months, and was then honorably discharged on account of serious disability resulting from severe sickness. Though his term of service as a soldier was brief, it made a permanent impression upon him. To the last he maintained intense interest in everything pertaining to the war and the Grand Army of the Republic.

Mr. True was for many years a member of the Penobscot lodge Free and Accepted Masons.

Funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. A. Corey, were held at his late residence Sunday, at 12,30 p.m. Members of the H. F. Safford post, G. A. R., were present, Penobscot lodge F. & A. M., attended in a body concluding the funeral obsequies with the dignified and impressive service of their order.

Thus has passed from our midst, at the age of 68 years, a man of kindly heart and generous impulse.

George married Caroline Frances MAXIM, daughter of Samuel MAXIM and Caroline, 21 Feb 1867. Caroline was born in 1840 in Sangerville, Piscataquis, ME and died 18 May 1926 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

The Eastern Gazette 5-20-1926, p.8

Mrs. Caroline F. True, widow of the late George B. True, passed away at her home on Free street about noon Tuesday, after a long illness at the age of eight-six.

She was born in Sangerville, the daughter of Samuel and Caroline Maxim. She was a resident of Dexter for about sixty years, and highly respected. Mrs. True was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Dexter and a charter member of Wassookeag Chapter, No. 44, Order of the Eastern Star and was a past Worthy Matron of the order. She was the oldest membehe World of Mothers, he chose for me the "Dearest one." The memorial service was held at her late home on Free street, Asa Haskell, and a sister, Mrs. Elmer P. Additon, all of Dexter, and a brother, Bradley Maxim, of Philadelphia. The funeral will take place at the residence Friday at 2 P. M.

SUDDEN DEATH OF ARTHUR P. ABBOTT

Member of Famous Old Family of Woolen Mill Men-Long Outstanding and Honored Citizen of Community

Arthur P. Abbott, 72, long one of the outstanding citizens of Dexter, died shortly after noon Tuesday, at his home on Free street. His health had been impaired for some time.

Shortly after he reached his office, he complained of not feeling as well as usual. A physician was called and he was taken home about 10 o'clock, going into a collapse and passed away shortly after noon.

Mr. Abbott was a grandson of Jeremiah Abbott, who with his brother, Amos Abbott, built a woolen mill in Dexter in 1820.

The business has always been under the firm name of Amos Abbott & Co. always in the same family. Arthur Abbott was the son of Job Abbott and Amanda Abbott. He was born in Dexter, attended the public schools and graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at the age of 20. Returning to Dexter to take up the business of his father and grandfather his death came after 52 years' connection with the firm.

The plant gradually grew to large capacity and modern equipment, employed Dexter people, generation after generation, and rarely had labor troubles.

Arthur Abbott, like his forbears, always kept in close and sympathetic touch with his employes, many in distress or need not only in his employ but in the community were relieved by his benevolence, although such was not generally known. No cause for community betterment ever lacked his support.

He kept closely in touch with civic matters and his counsel was regarded as of the highest value. He was president of the Dexter Loan and Building Association, member of Bedivere lodge, Knights of Pythias, one of the oldest members of the Dexter Club, member of the First Universalist church and for some time clerk of its board of trustees.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Flora Parkman Abbott; his son, Jere Abbott, director of the Art Museum of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., and his sister, Mrs. Nathan C. Bucknam, of Dexter.

The funeral will be held at the First Universalist church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Stanley Gates Spear, a former pastor of the church, now of Beverly, Mass., and William J. Metz, the present pastor will officiate. [Eastern Gazette 2-1-1934 p1]

Funeral of A. P. Abbott

All places of business in Dexter were closed Friday afternoon from three to four o'clock to pay tribute to the memory of the late Arthur P. Abbott. The memorial service held during that hour at the First Universalist church was largely attended, nearly every available seat in the large auditorium being taken. Probably never before in Dexter has such a beautiful display of flowers expressed the esteem in which a departed one is held and the deep sympathy extended to the relatives by friends near and far.

The service was simple, with no music. Scripture was read and prayer offered by the pastor of the church Rev. William J. Metz. Comforting gems of literature and well chosen personal remarks were made by one who has for 25 years been a friend of Mr. Abbott, Rev. Stanley Gates Spear of Beverly, Mass., a former pastor of the local church.

The active bearers at the service were Herbert M. Gates, Harry E. Hale, Fred O. Herrick, Harold C. Mountain and Peter S. Plouff, all of Dexter and Farley Hyde of Lynn, Mass.

The remains were placed in the receiving tomb at Mt. Pleasant cemetery to await burial there in the spring. (The Eastern Gazette 2-8-1934, p5)

Arthur married Flora Shaw PARKMAN, daughter of Shepard PARKMAN and Flora SHAW. Flora was born 11 Jan 1864 in Foxcroft, Piscataquis, ME and died 24 Feb 1952 in Dexter, Penobscot, ME.

The Eastern Gazette 2-28-1952, p.2 MRS. ARTHUR P. ABBOTT

Funeral services for Mrs. Flora P. Abbott, 88, who died Sunday at her Free street home after a long illness, were held Wednesday afternoon at the home. She was the widow of Arthur P. Abbott, well-known woolen manufacturer.

The Rev. Stanley Gates Spear of Beverly, Mass., a former pastor of the local First Universalist Church, officiated. Bearers were George Abbott, Carleton Bucknam, Donald Champeon and Thomas Tillson. Interment will be in the family lot at Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

She was born in Foxcroft, Jan. 11, 1864, daughter of Shepard and Flora (Shaw) Parkman. She was educated at Westbrook Seminary and had spent the greater part of her life in Dexter, although she had traveled extensively abroad and in the United States. She is survived by a son, Jere Abbott, of Dexter.

DEXTER - Jere Abbott, 85, died unexpectedly July 9, 1982, at the Plummer Memorial Hospital. He was born in Dexter, Oct. 5, 1897, son of Arthur and Flora (Parkman) Abbott.

He graduated from Dexter High School and Bowdoin College, doing graduate work at Harvard and Princeton Universities. He studied Art in Paris for several years prior to serving as associate director of the Museum of Modern Art, New York City, in 1929. He later became a director of the Smith College Art Museum in Northampton, Mass. Mr. Abbott was a fellow of the Pierpont-Morgan Library in New York City. He served on many prestigious art committees throughout the Northeast. He served as a trustee of Abbott Memorial Library, Dexter, for 35 years. Mr. Abbott will be remembered by Dexter residents for his kindness and generosity.

He is survived by four cousins, Carleton Bucknam of Dexter, Nathan Bucknam of Suffern, N.Y., Gilbert Bucknam of Hollis, N.H., and Robert Bucknam of Dubois, Wyom.

Private arrangements by Crosby Funeral Home, Dexter. Interment was in the family lot, Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Dexter.

WWI Draft registration res 62 Burleigh in Waterville, b Upton MA, Civil Engineer for Central Maine Power in Waterville, has wife and child, was a Sargent in Canadian Infantry; medium height and build, blue eyes, dark red hair. Family: 5'11", balding. Carole adds, strawberry blonde to red brown hair.

William graduated from the University of New Brunswick. Birth recorded in Upton VR v360 p386, year 1885 confirmed. Birth record has parents as William Robertson b ME & Alice F Roberts b Dexter ME (sic; she probably said her married name Robertson, then changed it, but the clerk had already started writing it. Alice Florilla Safford WAS b Dexter.). William m2 Helen Elwell (Mrs Cousens) in Gardiner ME 15 June 1940. She m3) Howard Kelley (10 Jan 1891 - April 1983 Warwick RI). Helen and Howard would come to East Rochester to visit the Rhoades family occasionally.

William Lewis Robertson's d/c says he resided at 3 Cobbosee Ave; his wife Helen Cousens was 49; he was b West Upton Mass, and he was District Supt CMP Co. His father was a sea captain b NB and mother Alice Safford b NB [sic]. He died of Pulmonary thrombosis, and prostate cancer. His prostate cancer metastasized to his ribs (which broke when he tried to get out of the car) and spine.

Memories from Muriel: How did he meet Helen and where did the big house on the hill (133 Cobbosee Ave) come from? Helen might have been one of the housekeepers. They lived on Central St/Water St in Gardiner, house belonged to Helen, it was a Cousens' house. She worked in a factory office on Water St. Helen's mother was nice, they called her Nana. Muriel and Martha mowed the big steep lawn by hand. William remodeled the house. It burned ca 2010 and was rebuilt.

Carole Hanson Guentert writes in her book Hansons of York Maine, p84-92: "Will introduced an unpopular step-mother into the Robertson girls' lives when he remarried a few years later. I remember Grandfather Robertson as a tall friendly man (Mom's childhood friend Edith Sanborn described him as "impressive"), who brought 3-foot tall dolls to Peggy and me for Christmas and on our birthdays. He was married to Helen Cousens by that time, and I spent time at their house on the hill in Gardiner Maine (Cobbosee Stream) in the summertime, though my mother never liked her step-mother, and we weren't allowed to either. My mother could really hold a grudge about that, but it may have been well-deserved.

Mom would tell of the huge strawberry shortcakes that her Dad would serve up in soup bowls, because he didn't want his girls to suffer deprivation like he did when he was a boy. When his father remarried, his step-mother cut him off from any financial help for college, so he got a loan from his employer, Ganong's Candy factory in St Stephen NB. Some letters from William are also reproduced in the book.

From MAINE BIOGRAPHIES, republished 2002 in two volumes, was originally published as v3 of Maine Resources, Attractions, and it's People, by Harrie B Coe 1928, v1 p379:

William Lewis Robertson, civil engineer and public utility executive of Skowhegan Maine, was born in West Upton Massachusetts, June 27, 1886, the son of William and Alice Safford Robertson. His father was born in New Brunswick Canada but his mother, died in 1891, was born in Dexter Maine.

Educated in the public schools of New Brunswick Canada, and in the University of New Brunswick, and having qualified as a civil engineer, William Lewis Robertson spent 13 years in municipal employment in the construction of highways, and then specialized in hydroelectric hydro-electric engineering, while continuing his work in general engineering. He was associated with Green and Wilson, civil engineers of Waterville Maine in 1903, later with the Canada and Gulf Terminal Railroad Company, and then with the New Brunswick Hydro-electric Company. On November 2, 1915, he became identified with the engineering department of the Central Maine Power Company, and was assistant superintendent of the Bath district in 1919, where he served until September 1923, when he was promoted to be superintendent of the Skowhegan district.

He is a 32nd degree Free and Accepted Mason; and of all affiliated bodies, and is Past Commander of Dunlap Commandery, Knights Templar, of Bath Maine, and is also a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and of the Rotary Club of Skowhegan.

William L Robertson married Edith M Leavitt, daughter of Joseph C and Ellura Stinneford Leavitt, at Waterville Maine, November 11, 1914. Her parents were both born in Cambridge Maine. Their children: 1. Marguerite, born October 30, 1916, at Waterville Maine. 2. Jeanette, on October 8, 1918, at Bath Maine.

Edith & William are buried in the family plot with her parents at Pine Grove Cemetery Lot 548, Waterville. The April 1 1926 Kennebec Journal p2 has the Skowhegan local news, with an article headlined "Easter Concert at Federated Church". Mrs Edith Robertson played "Faith", and Jeannette Robertson was one of the "Lilies of the Field".

Genetic tree: 5'0"; wt 100; brown hair; septicaemia, possibly acutely infected gall bladder attack. Cousin Carole Guentert adds, On Edith, I heard via Mom that she died of septicemia after her gall bladder surgery as her older retired former employer Dr E. P. Fish, did the surgery as a favor and left "the proverbial sponge" in the surgical site, causing the massive infection. He realized he was too old to be performing surgery, but she wouldn't have anyone else do it. Daughter Marguerite was at her hospital bedside when she passed.

Carole also adds (p84 of her book Hansons of York Maine, "I found that my maternal grandmother, Edith Leavitt Robertson, kept a Shakespeare birthday book with both joyous and sad entries. She made shorthand entries in her memory book on Jan 11 and 18, 1914 that read "Will spoke to me but I decided it was best to wait a month but I only waited a week" and "Will asked me to be his wife. I would not have the slightest idea that he cared for me. I feel sure that he does love me." On Jan 25, 1914, Edith entered "I had my ring. It was put on with a kiss. I think it's a beauty. I do love him." She never entered their wedding date, Nov 11, 1914 in this book."

The same April 1 1926 Kennebec Journal which mentions her mother and sister on p2 Skowhegan news has the headline "Suffers from badly scalded foot and ankle". "Miss Marguerite Robertson met with a painful accident recently, one which might have resulted much more seriously than it did. The little Miss came in from outside where she had been playing and in throwing off her coat caught it on a pail of boiling water, on the heater close by. The contents overturned upon her foot and ankle, which were badly burned. While she is improving, the foot is painful." Genetic tree: brown hair; angina. Daughter Carole says: Marge had hazel/green eyes I think and "mousey brown" hair. Her cause of death was lung cancer as the primary site but it spread up her spine to the brain. She had larger hands, as I noticed at her wake and her shoes were size 9+ as was her ring size; not a small woman, size 14 at later years and Mom was 5'6" or 7". (Son) Dennis' hand situation (no fingers on one hand) was thought to be the result of Mom having German measles while pregnant, tho' I'm not sure that is so.

Marguerite married James Dennis HANSON, son of Augustine Charles "Gus" HANSON and Katherine DOYLE, 27 May 1940 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME. James was born 14 Nov 1913 in York, York, ME and died 19 Dec 1999 in Lakeland, Polk, FL.

338 F iii. JoAnn CHRISTIE was born 20 Jun 1953 in Nashua, Hillsborough, NH.

JoAnn married Edward W GRYGORCEWICZ, son of Stanley GRYGORCEWICZ and Erna SCHMIDT, 13 Oct 1973 in Nashua, Hillsborough, NH. Edward was born 24 Jul 1944 in Clausthal-Zellerfeld, Lower Saxony, Germany and died 17 Aug 1999 in Nashua, Hillsborough, NH.

Edward W. Grygorcewicz, 55, of 617 W. Hollis St., Nashua, died Tuesday morning, Aug. 17, 1999, at St. Joseph Hospital in Nashua following a brief illness.

He was born July 24, 1944, in Clausdal-Zellerfeld, Germany, son of the late Stanley and Erna (Schmidt) Grygorcewicz. Mr. Grygorcewicz came to the United States as a young man and settled with his family in Cleveland, and later made his home in Maple Heights, Ohio, before moving to Nashua several years ago.

Mr. Grygorcewicz was the husband of JoAnn (Christie) Grygorcewicz, with whom he celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in October 1998.

A machinist and tool crib attendant, Mr. Grygorcewicz had been employed with Improved Machinery, a division of Ingersoll-Rand -- now owned by the Beloit Corp. -- for the past 25 years. Mr. Grygorcewicz was a Marine Corps veteran, having served during the Vietnam War. An avid golfer, he also loved collecting sports cards and memorabilia. He was educated in Cleveland schools.

Besides his wife, survivors include a son, Edward W. Grygorcewicz Jr. of Claremont; two daughters, Karen and Vicki Grygorcewicz, both of Nashua; a grandson, Joshua Grygorcewicz of Rhode Island; a brother and sister-in-law, Peter and Doris Arnecke of Wildeman, Germany; a nephew, Tom Arnecke of Germany; his mother-in-law, Jeannette Christie of Nashua; and brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law and their families.

296. Muriel Ruth ROBERTSON (*William Lewis ROBERTSON*⁹, *Alice Florilla SAFFORD*⁸, *Hiram*⁷, *Simeon*⁶, *John*⁵, *John*⁴, *Thomas*³, *John*², *Thomas*¹) was born 19 Mar 1929 in Skowhegan, Somerset, ME and died 29 Nov 2016 in Franklin, Merrimack, NH.

Muriel grew up as a Methodist, but attended Sunday Schools at the Universalist churches in Skowhegan and Gardiner. Moved to Gardiner as a small child, and graduated from Gardiner High School 1947, and Burdett Business College in Lynn MA. Attended Girl Scout Camp at Cobbossee Lake in 1941 according to a letter from her father, and was a Cub Scout Den Mother. Attended Episcopal churches in Gardiner ME, and Dover and Rochester NH.

Genetic Tree: 5'2"; wt 110-130; brown hair; hazel eyes; high blood pressure; back problems/ scoliosis; Blood A+. Memory problems in late 70s, slow progression. No cancer. Had thyroid operated on in her 30s or 40s. Has been diagnosed with clinical depression in her later years. She passed at 11:50pm Nov 29 at the nursing home, mostly unresponsive for the previous week.

FTDNA test results: Haplogroup is H6a1a2a. [My maternal cousins will be the same - Robertson > Leavitt > Stinneford > Trafton > Penney > Gowen > Cole > Spencer 1698.] H6 is one of the oldest branches of haplogroup H. Its age is estimated at around 26,000 years. It is one of the most frequent branches of H found among Arabian lineages, and is the most frequent branch among those found in Central Asia. It likely originated in the Middle East or Central Asia. H6 is also found at very low frequencies in Europe. I have also uploaded my data to the mtDNA Community website for additional analysis.

23&me test refined Aug 2014 shows 99.9% European, broken down as 64.8% British & Irish, 12.7% French & German, 2.3% Scandinavian, 16% Broadly Northern European, .2% Italian, 2.1% Broadly Southern European, 1.8% Broadly European, .1% unassigned. This test also showed 2.9% Neanderthal dna.

SAFFORD Family of Dexter, Maine

Muriel married Roland³ Edward RHOADES, son of Roland Edison RHOADES [PEAVEY] and Marion Frances BOUDWAY, 7 Oct 1950 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME. Roland³ was born 5 Jun 1930 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME and died 7 May 2017 in Franklin, Merrimack, NH.

Roland attended Farmingdale and Gardiner schools, graduating from Gardiner High School in 1947. Served in the US Army Air Corps, in charge of sled dogs in Labrador. He moved to Dover NH in 1955 and East Rochester NH in 1959. He worked at GE in Somersworth NH for 11 years. He was a licensed electrician, carpenter and general contractor, a co-owner of a couple companies. He and Muriel were also owners of Hilltop Recreation Center in Somersworth NH, which he built from the ground up in the 1960s to include a golf driving range, go-karts, baseball and softball batting cages, and "Space Age" miniature golf. That was a major news attraction; each hole had a giant theme, like a flying saucer large enough to walk through, that airplane pilots said they used as a bearing for landing at the Rochester airport. It also had space creatures and planets made from steel, chicken wire and mortar. His children always had summer jobs! He was also an Eagle Boy Scout, Order of the Arrow; Scoutmaster in Gardiner ME and Salmon Falls NH; Cubmaster in East Rochester; and served on the vestry as Jr and Sr Warden of the Episcopal Church in Rochester. He converted their summer camp in Sanford to year-round and moved from East Rochester in 1980. He sold his business and retired to Lakeland FL around 1985 in a retirement park where he has been President of the Shuffleboard Club, with many trophies. He and Muriel have led a very active life in the Florida warmth; it's hard to ever find them home. In January 2011, they sold their home in Lakeland and moved in with daughter Nancy in NH.

Genetic Tree: 5'10"; wt 175; black hair; hazel eyes; balding at 40; arthritis, heart disease, back problems (the "Boudway back" acc to his mother), slight diabetes; Blood AB+. Memory problems at about age 80, rapid progression. Had a heart attack and stint 1995; pacemaker 2005. Knee replacement 2009. Prostate cancer 2009.

DNA test results from 23&me: Mtdna U2e1a. Y-dna Rhoades line belongs to Haplogroup R1b1a. 23&me autosomal test, refined Aug 2014, showed 99.8% European, broken down as 41% British & Irish, 14.8% French & German, 8.2% Scandinavian, 29.9% Broadly Northern European, 1.3% Iberian, .5% Broadly Southern European, .1% Ashkenazi, 4.1% Broadly European; .2% East Asian & Native American, .1% Mongolian, <.1% Native American. Broadly means they do not yet have the comparative data to pin it down, but it will eventually increase the Scandinavian and French amounts. This is one reason why they dropped the price to build their database to a million users. His father's story about his g-grandmother (Whalen) being an Indian princess is in question. This test also showed 2.7% Neanderthal dna.

341 M i. Roland⁴ Edward RHOADES was born 10 Nov 1951 in Gardiner, Kennebec, ME.

Education/Work: Started 1st grade at age 5 and was almost kept back. By 5th grade I was in the advanced sections of my class in math and English. A Cub Scout and Boy Scout advancing to Star rank. Graduated from Spaulding High School in Rochester NH 1969 at 17, member of the National Honor Society. I remember taking an IQ test in school and being told the results were private, but they told me anyway. I remember being told a number in the 120s, I think it was 123 or maybe 127.

Attended the University of New Hampshire 1969-1972 where I joined the Young Socialist Alliance and anti-war demonstrations. My parents found out by neighbors calling them saying I was on the front page of Foster's Daily Democrat as the NH Campaign Coordinator for the Socialist Workers Party Linda Jenness for President campaign. Always a liberal in politics, family Democrats back to at least 1929, continuing as a diehard Bernie Sanders supporter.

Manager of my father's business, Hilltop Recreation Center in Somersworth NH 1976-1983. Electrician at Portsmouth Naval Shipyard Shop 99 1983-1993 where I advanced as far as I could without committing to nuclear work or being a foreman (WG-10 Step 5), and resigned to work my own business full time. Fuller Brush Man and nationwide trainer 1992-2016.

Started genealogy research in 1980. A founder and President of the French Family Assn 1984. Joined the National Association of Leavitt Families in 1984, elected VP 2004, President 2005-2009, elected Genealogist 2009-present. Actively researches many of his Maine families and maintains a genealogy website for them. Has multiple paths to 5 different Mayflower ancestors and joined Maine Mayflower Society in 1984.

Marriages: Rosalyn Tumblin m1 Donald Bernier; m3 Jim Leavitt of Alfred. Dau of Arnold C Tumblin b MA & Gertrude Gorman b ME. Married by Marguerite Stanley NP in Gowen Park, Sanford, reception at my house 118 Jackson St. Cynthia and I were married by Rev Mykel Johnson at Allen Avenue Unitarian Universalist Church on the anniversary of my grandparents' wedding.

Genetic Tree: 5'9"; wt 160-175; light brown hair, hazel eyes; non-balding at 60; slightly high blood pressure and cholesterol; Blood A+. Right handed, but partially left handed, I'm told I deal cards left

Richard "Duke" Kumpel, 81, passed away on Sunday July 22, 2012. Cherished dad to his five children and Papa Duke to his grandchildren and first great granddaughter, he remained a steady presence in his children's lives showing his warmth and humor that characterized his life. Duke, born on Christmas Day 1930, was raised in Melrose. He shared many happy childhood experiences with his sister Flo and brother George. It was at Lincoln Elementary School in Melrose where he met his lifelong friend and "partner in crime" Donald "Cookie" Corcoran. He graduated from Melrose High School in 1948 where he was a sprinter with the Track and Field Team. After graduating he enlisted in the Navy and served with the Seabees for two years. He met his bride-to-be Martha who was in the nurse-in-training program at Melrose Wakefield Hospital and she immediately caught his eye. He married his beautiful wife Martha in 1952, and soon after the couple moved to Greenwood where they raised five children. Their home in Greenwood was a frequent site of neighborhood pool parties and Christmas caroling get-togethers.

Duke worked for the Local 537 as a union pipefitter for over forty years working on many large scale commercial projects. While working and helping Martha raise the children, he attended Northeastern University at night for eight years finally earning his B.S. in Civil Engineering.

He touched many lives through his associations as a player agent for Wakefield Little League for more than ten years. In addition, he served on the Board of Directors of both Little League and Wakefield Youth Hockey. Duke will be especially remembered for his tireless work leading to the growth of Massachusetts Hockey. In 1974, he became a charter member of Massachusetts Hockey and later served as a member of Mass Hockey's Executive Board. In addition, he served as USA Hockey Director-at Large for nineteen years and was proudly elected USA Hockey Director Emeritus. He received numerous accolades and awards for his work and was inducted into the Massachusetts Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001.

He moved to Reading in 1996 and served on the Condo Board for Summit Towers for many years. An avid snowbird for the past sixteen years, Duke enjoyed winters at his condo in Fort Lauderdale where he enjoyed shared dinners, reminiscing with old friends and sitting in the sunshine with his Sudoku puzzles. Oftentimes, he was joined by his companion, Mary Cail of Melrose. She was his constant and loving friend and they shared the last nineteen years together going to countless hockey games, rooting for the Red Sox together and enjoying time with family and mutual friends.

Duke never met a stranger and he had a joy for life and for helping others. He had an uncanny ability to fix things and always had a smile for others. He will be remembered and sorely missed by his five children and their spouses including Bill and his wife Pat, Linda Lomas and her husband Howie, Judy and her husband Tom Gonnella of Gettysburg Pennsylvania, Mark and his wife Helene Van Neste of Scarborough, Maine, and Kristen and her husband John Abbondante. He is also survived by ten grandchildren and one great granddaughter. He was predeceased by his loving wife Martha who died in 1989.

A visitation for relatives and friends will be held at McDonald Funeral Home, 19 Yale Ave, Wakefield on Wednesday from 4 to 8 p.m. A memorial service will be held at a future date.
